ANTI-KLAN SOLON THRASHED IN LEGISLATURE

$100,000 Apartment Hotel Starts!

82 ROOMS IN BEAR'S BIG STRUCTURE

North Central Building Will Include Garage Beneath 3 Floors Living Quarters

Excavation started this morning for an 82-room apartment hotel to be erected at once by Wilbur S. Bear at 308 North Central avenue, at a total cost exceeding $100,000.

The apartment will be three stories of Spanish type, strictly modern, 50x165 feet, set back fifteen feet from the property line. The entire basement will be devoted to a garage for the accommodation of cars, states Mr. Bear.

Sound-Proof Rooms

Among the high-class features that will make this structure distinctive, he points out, is the "Kerner" incinerator, located in the basement, which will care for all refuse; hall ice-box, grocery-bin and garbage receptacle doors, obviating necessity of disturbing guests, telephone in each room; "califelt," asbestos and "flax-linum" floors and walls, making them sound-proof.

Mr. Bear studied the latest developments in apartment hotels of Hollywood and Los Angeles before starting erection of this structure, and the result is embodiment of many conveniences but recently developed.

Lots of Singles

There will be approximately sixty single apartments and twenty doubles, he states. Furnishings throughout will be of the best, with white enamel stoves of a superior type in the kitchens.

Wilbur S. Bear comes from Madison, Ind., where he was for some years engaged in the lumber business. He has been a resident of Glendale since August of 1922, living at 220 North Central avenue with Mrs. Bear and her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Gardon.

Other Activity

Mr. Bear and his brother, D. C. Bear, recently completed a nine-unit bungalow court on South Central avenue and are at the present time erecting a four-family flat on Windsor road.

The seven-room house at 308 North Central avenue, on the site where the apartment hotel is now rising, was bought by George C. Wichman and moved yesterday to West Wilson avenue.

H. P. Siberell is the contractor.

SCIOTS TO HONOR LEGION MEMBERS

Special Program Planned for Circus; Ticket Holders to Draw for Gifts

Opening night crowd records at the Sciot Circus were smashed last night, when close to 3000 merrymakers swarmed to the Big Tent on North Brand boulevard between Milford and Doran streets.

For tonight's show, when there is to be a special program in honor of American Legion Night, with the buddies putting on all sorts of nifty stunts, Toparch H. M. Bennett of local Pyramid No. 39, is afraid he'll have to add on a second floor to the tent, to accommodate the crowds.

Owing to the special program, there will be but one performance of Carl Horney's circus. The Legionnaires will be present to a man, it is repoted, and their special caps will add an extra touch of color to the brilliant scene.

A total of eight presents are to be donated to ticketholders by members of Pyramid No. 39, Toparch Bennett reports.

Following is the standing of the beauty candidates to date:

PROBE MURDER RUMOR

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 25.—Reports of a "knife" murder today in the cafe at 5480 Santa Monica boulevard, resulted in an investigation by police.

SAM WOO CONFUSES LOTTERY AND LOT CLEANING TICKETS; PLEADS IGNORANCE IN COURT

"Wassa malla? Me no kotchum laundlee tickee. Me do 'em up fine. Washy clothes all day, all night, no sabe Amelican lott'ly tickee. Me no want clean 'em jail. Smellee no good. Look worsee Chinee laundlee!"

With protestations of ignorance, Sam Woo, ancient toiler over the tubs of Glendale's one and only Chinese laundry, this morning was relieved of $25 bail money by Detective Lieut. W. J. Royle, after arresting the oriental on the charge of not having cleaned the weeds from his premises at the corner of Doran street and San Fernando road, one of the gateways to "the fastest growing city."

Sam is finding out about the law this afternoon in the court of Justice Harry W. Chase, who is acting police judge in F. H. Lowe's place. It is very probable that the city will insist on Sam spending the $25 for cleaning the weeds and rubbish from his property.

It is stated that he disregarded the tickets of notification ordering him to do the work. The engineering and fire departments were insistent that it be done. And the police are seeing to it. But Sam says, says he:

"Me think 'em clean lot tickees all samee Amelican lott'ly. Burn 'em up paper so police no ketchum lott'ly by me. No sabe. No sabe."

Best Talent From Pictures And Stage Quick to Offer Service For Relief Fund

Agnes Ayers and Arthur Stuart Hull were added to the list of professional luminaries who are volunteering their services in Glendale to raise a fine big relief fund for Mrs. Johanna Edwards and Mrs. J. W. McGahan and sons. They will augment the professional talent included in the benefit program to be given Tuesday night, November 6, at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse.

In announcing the names of Miss Ayers and Mr. Hull this morning, Miss Louise Dresser, the guiding spirit of the big benefit, said:

"It is going to be the biggest thing Glendale has ever done and I want to tell Glendale people that the professional people who are to take part in the program have responded because of the big heart appeal in the cause.

Supreme Sacrifice

"Clarence Edwards and Joseph W. McGahan were burned alive on the hillside fighting to protect your home and mine and our city of Glendale, and the $5 or $10 we spend for tickets to the benefit program won't even be noticed by us. It isn't only the money it's the spirit back of the money."

As for Miss Ayers' appearance, Miss Dresser said:

"I am most happy to bring Miss Ayers to Glendale. She's the most womanly little woman I have ever known and not given to public appearances. She's a talented actress, beautiful, and has appeared in leads with almost all famous male stars.

"Arthur Stuart Hull is also popular in the dramatic world and will contribute something worth while to the program."

F. P. Newport, the well known realtor, this morning sent in his check for $100 for the fire relief fund.

Tickets for the affair are now on sale at the Chamber of Commerce, 150 South Brand boulevard; Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse office; Glendale Evening News office and Glendale Book store.

Individuals having tickets for sale are Chalmer Day, 521 West Elk street; Twining & Myers, at 227-A South Brand; W. P. Porter with the Bentley Lumber Company; Mrs. A. P. Finlay, 506 East Harvard, telephone Glendale 1994-J; Miss Eva Daniels, 324 West Colorado street, telephone Glendale 911-J; Glendale Pharmacy, 638 East Broadway; Fred Anderson, real estate office, Montrose; Twentieth Century club, Eagle Rock.

Glendale State Bank Turns Over Relief Funds

George E. Farmer, cashier of the Glendale State bank, has delivered to The Glendale Evening News, checks totaling $43 to be added to the fund being raised for the families of Clarence Edwards and Joseph W. McGahan, who were burned to death while fighting fire.

The checks represented a subscription of $20 from E. B. Wyman, a subscription of $5 from Harry Webb and a subscription of $18 from the employes of the

BROUGHER TALKS SERVICE TO CLUBS

Rotary Host This Noon at Love Feast With Kiwanis and Exchange Members

Developing the topic "Keys and Keyholes," Dr. James Whitcomb Brougher, pastor of the Temple Baptist church, Los Angeles, told members of the Glendale luncheon clubs this noon that many people claiming discovery of the key to success have never found the keyhole.

The luncheon was held by Rotary at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse, corner of North Central avenue and Lexington drive, and was attended by members of the Rotary, Kiwanis and Exchange clubs.

"A man who will develop to the limit his natural powers—mental, physical, moral and spiritual—and use them all in the service of mankind, is bound to gain the key and find the keyhole opening the door to real success and genuine happiness," Dr. Brougher continued. "To live happily, successfully and usefully should be the goal of life.

Life at Its Best

"The Boy Scout motto, 'Do a kind act every day,' is a splendid thought to instill in the boy mind—and the adult mind as well. Service means life at its best. It works both ways. It is the Golden Rule, expressed in one simple word. Love is another great word. Service implies love. We love those we serve and we serve those we love. It too works both ways.

"To adjust one's life in harmony with the great natural laws is the basic secret of success. None can find the key and the keyhole whose life is discordant. Of the natural laws, those of concentration and good cheer are perhaps the most important. Power must be concentrated to be effective and cannot long be maintained without a cheerful attitude toward life. It is an old saying that the Jack of all trades is the master of none. It is equally true that few grouches achieve success."

Rev. Ernest E. Ford, who was responsible for the success of today's Rotary club program, was given the gavel by President Geo. B. Karr and introduced Dr. Brougher to the audience.

RE-FUELLING PLANES IN MID AIR

Border to Border Flyers Making Quick Time Toward California

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 25.—The non-stop border to border flight plane, en route from Canada to the Mexican border was successfully re-fueled in mid-air while flying over Eugene today.

Approximately 100 gallons of gasoline was poured into the non stop plane in a period of five minutes as it flew over Eugene.

Lieutenant Virgil Hine and F. W. Siefert, in charge of the refueling plane, said after they landed contact was first established with the non-stop plane about ten miles north of Eugene.

Make Quick Time

Fifty gallons of gasoline was fed into the flight plane in a minute and three-quarters. The gasoline then failed to flow freely, the officers said, and it became necessary to use the pump in the re-fueling plane for some few minutes.

A second contact was established south of Eugene and forty-five gallons were poured into the flight plane. The planes during the process were traveling about 105 miles an hour at an altitude of 3000 feet.

Weather Ideal

Weather conditions are ideal through the valley, according to reports received here.

Sacramento is expected to be reached at 2 p. m., where the plane will be again re-fueled in mid-air. Captain R. G. Erwin and Lieutenant O. R. McNeill will be in charge of the re-fueling plane.

When the plane left Suma, Wash., early this morning it carried 174 gallons of gasoline and thirty gallons of oil. Gasoline alone was taken on at Eugene, and it is expected that the oil supply will last over the entire trip of 1700 miles.

SNOWSTORM HITS WESTERN STATES

Denver Reports Wires Down, Traffic Halted and Heavy Damage

DENVER, Oct. 25.—Four and one-half inches of snow lie on the ground this morning and considerable amount of damage to power and telephone lines throughout the state have been reported as a result of rain and snowfall during the past twenty-four hours.

On the western slope the snow was accompanied by heavy winds which piled up huge drifts, making all roads impassable. Tramway cars in Denver were tied up in the early evening and snow plows were used throughout the night. Limbs of trees were torn off and automobile traffic impeded.

The road over Marshall, Rabbit Ear, Wolf Creek passes and Durango-Silverton highway are filled with ten feet of snow. Telephone lines between Ogden and Salt Lake City were out early this morning and communication to Kansas City was dead.

Thousands Out of Work

Heavy rains and snows in the Greeley district threw out of employment, temporarily, thousands of men engaged in digging beets and potatoes. Factories are running short and should a heavy freeze occur the damage to potatoes would be heavy.

POLICE HUNT RAFFLES

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 25.—Search for a pretty young woman was begun by the police today following the questioning at the city jail of Edward J. Wall, 23, who is held on suspicion of grand larceny following the "raffles" theft of $8000 of jewelry at a fashionable dinner party last night. Thirty guests were present at the dinner party, which was given in a fashionable apartment house by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lennon of Seattle. Wall, according to the police, was a guest at the affair.

Stresemann in Conference on Proposal to Back Move of Separatists

BERLIN, Oct. 25.—Chancellor Stresemann at Hagen today discussed the establishing of a Rhenish free state within the German confederation of states, it was learned from an exclusive source.

He met representatives of all classes of Rhenish people.

Extend Republic

PARIS, Oct. 25.—Information was received by the foreign office today that the German separatists in the Rhineland are "extending the republic and solidifying it." According to these advices, Soden, Gaissenheim and Andernach have been included in the movement.

Nationalists and communists joined forces at Wiesbaden, attacking police headquarters, which was occupied by French troops, said a dispatch to the Temps this afternoon. The attackers were repulsed.

Ex-Crown Prince Active

PARIS, Oct. 25.—The former German crown prince has formally requested Holland's permission to leave the country, according to a Hague dispatch today.

He asked German officials to issue him a passport, declaring he has no monarchist aims, and would not give any aid to the royalists in Germany.

POWERS TO MEET ON REPARATIONS

London Report Declares U. S. Originates Plans for World Conference

By LUTHER A. HUSTON
For International News Service

LONDON, Oct. 25.—It was stated in semi-official circles that preliminary negotiations are under way between the United States, England and other powers for an international conference to discuss reparations along broad lines.

According to the Daily Mail, the proposals originated with the United States. Foreign office officials refused to confirm the report.

Reparations Commission to Have Free Hand

PARIS, Oct. 25.—The French cabinet met today with President Millerand and decided that the inter-allied reparations commission is entirely free in its action regarding the reparations note submitted yesterday.

While the commission is given a free hand the cabinet expressed the opinion that the contents of the note are not sufficient to warrant action.

Farmer-Labor Bodies Balk at Ford Boom

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Two of the national organizations of farmers and labor invited to attend a national conference in Detroit on December 12 at which plans will be launched for the Ford-for-President movement, announced here today they will not participate. These are the American Federation of Labor and the American Farm Bureau Federation.

MAH JONGG NOT CHINESE

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 25.—Although there are more than 300,000 Mah Jongg games in use in America and the pastime has spread to Canada, England and France, Mah Jongg is not a Chinese game, and never was, according to J. ## MONROVIA MANIAC STABS 4 ON TRAIN

Talesfero Candelaria Beaten to Death by Irate Santa Fe Tourists

TRINIDAD, Colo., Oct. 25.—A man, identified from papers on his person, as Telesfero Candeleria, 55, of Monrovia, Cal., ran amuck with a long bladed knife, seriously stabbed three male passengers and the conductor of Santa Fe train No. 7, west bound, early today before he was subdued and killed by irate passengers.

According to letters found on Candelaria he had been a recent inmate of the Paterson sanitarium in Monrovia. He is believed to have been wealthy.

Conductor Dubler succeeded in reaching the bell cord and stopped the train.

A negro porter named Garner secured a revolver and took a random shot at the maniac that knocked him down slightly wounded. A passenger with a coupling bar hit the fallen man on the head rendering him unconscious, while other enraged passjumped on him and beaten him to death.

OKLAHOMA'S ASSEMBLY SCENE OF BIG FIGHT

Representative Callahan Is Beaten Up by K. K. K. Sympathizers

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 25.—(5 p. m.)—The state supreme court late today held that Lieut. Governor Trapp is acting governor and no court can enjoin him.

STATE CAPITOL, OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 25.—Representative J. W. Callahan, a farmer-labor member of the Oklahoma house of representatives, was beaten up and thrown bodily out of the house chambers this afternoon when he made charges against the character of his fellow members and declared that Grand Dragon N. C. Jewett, of the Oklahoma realm of the Ku Klux Klan, dictated to the majority what legislation should be adopted and what should not.

Instantly Representative Jess Pullen leaped for him with the cry:

"That's a d—d lie."

Fireworks Starts

Pullen caught Callahan by the throat and bore him to the floor, as a score of enraged members crowded about.

They lifted Callahan to his feet and dragged him to the door, literally throwing him out.

The action was so unexpected that the sergeant-at-arms could not reach the scene, but half a dozen of the members succeeded in restoring order.

Mr. and Mrs. George Peck and Miss Amie Miller of 116 East Cypress street motored to Banning Sunday, where they were the guests of Mrs. Peck's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spears.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holland of 518 Kenneth Road, have returned to their home after an enjoyable week's stay at their cottage at Manhattan Beach. Mrs. Silvester of Los Angeles was their guest for several days.

Mrs. J. E. Eckles of 328 North Orange street motored to the University of Southern California, and was a guest at the afternoon tea given by the Delta Gamma sorority for mothers. Her daughter, Miss Marguerite Eckles, who is a freshman at the university, was recently initiated into the sorority.

Haynes Defends Blair Against Drys' Attack

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Attacks made by the Methodist board of temperance, prohibition and public morals, upon Secretary of the Treasury Mellon and Internal Revenue Commissioner Blair as officials "unfit to direct prohibition enforcement," were repudiated today by Prohibition Commissioner Haynes.

Haynes wrote a letter to the board in which he defended Mellon and Blair, his superior officers, and declared he had found them helpful and efficient in enforcement matters.

MOVING BUILDING

G. C. Wickman has been granted permission to move the building at 308 North Central avenue to 368 West Wilson avenue.

DEATHS---FUNERALS

MRS. C. HAINES

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Haines, of 532 North Jackson street, will be sorry to learn of the death of Mr. Haines' mother, Mrs. C. Haines of Alhambra, formerly of Glendale.

Funeral services will be held in the parlors of Utter & Son of Alhambra at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, October 27, 1923.

FRANK L. NOBLE

Funeral services for Frank L. Noble of Montrose, who died of heart failure, will be held at the undertaking parlors of Kiefer & Eyerick this (Thursday) afternoon at 4 o'clock, with Rev. Louis Tinning officiating. Interment will be at Grand View cemetery. Mrs. Noble is ill at a San Diego hospital and unable to be present. Close friends of the deceased are looking after funeral arrangements.

FRANK JONES

Funeral services for Frank Jones, who died Friday, October 19, 1923, in Monroe, Mich., will be held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the L. G. Scovern Undertaking chapel on South Brand boulevard. Burial will take place in Grand View Memorial park. The Odd Fellows' lodge will be in charge.

Mr. Jones, who was 69 years of age at the time of his death, had resided in Glendale at 1421 South San Fernando road. He was on a visit in Michigan when his death occurred. He leaves two sons in Los Angeles.

BIRTHS

A son was born Wednesday night, October 24, 1923, at the Glendale Research hospital, to Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Proctor, of 1134 East Wilson avenue.

Exhibit Antiques

A program of unusual interest was presented at the meeting of chapter L. P. E. O., at the home of Mrs. Charles Farnham, 316 North Louise street, Wednesday afternoon.

The topic, "Women of the Revolutionary Period," was given by Mrs. H. E. Bartlett with interesting descriptions of the colonial dames. Mrs. A. C. Read read an account of a series of tableaux given by the D. A. R. in Memorial Continental hall, Washington, D. C., at the thirtieth continental congress in which "Living Pictures of Historical Women" were presented by delegates from the different states.

At the close of the program the members adjourned to the dining room where a display of antiques, contributed by the members had been arranged by Mrs. Lee.

The exhibit contained rare books, quaint embroideries and samplers, old china, decanters and glassware, silver spoons 150 years old, jewels and jewel boxes, daguerreotypes, letters and diaries and documents of great value issued to ancestors of the members.

A graduation dress of a hundred years ago, exhibited by Mrs. Read was donned by Mrs. F. C. Weller who presented a quaint appearance in a frock fashioned after the "Josephine" period.

Mrs. E. W. W. Hayward, president of chapter CJ, was a special guest of the afternoon and exhibited a book printed in the seventeenth century and some old embroideries.

An exhibit of old coins, the collection of E. M. Lee, was of great interest.

During the business session with Mrs. H. D. Goss in the chair, various matters pertaining to P. E. O. activities were taken up. The chapter voted $10 to the fund for the families of the fire victims and private subscriptions increased it to $16.

Mrs. McGowan, mother of Mrs. Ina Randolph, who has assisted so much in the philanthropic work of the chapter, was an honored guest of the afternoon and the president, Mrs. Goss, with words of appreciation presented her in behalf of the chapter, with a beautiful bouquet of yellow and white chrysanthemums.

The chapter will hold their next meeting November 14, at the home of Mrs. C. E. Russell, 332 North Kenwood street.

Church Ceremony

At a late afternoon ceremony, taking place at 4 o'clock Monday, October 22, 1923, at the Holy Family Catholic church, Miss Marjorie Heslip became the bride of Joseph Quigley. Both young people came to Glendale recently from Patterson, New Jersey.

Father Michael Galvin was the officiant, and the only attendants were Mrs. Jessie Nielsen, of Highland park, and Alfred Sheen, Jr., of Patterson, New Jersey.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Quigley were honored at a wedding supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Magill at 500 West Patterson street. Later music was enjoyed.

Those participating in the wedding supper were Mr. and Mrs. Quigley, Mrs. Jessie Nielsen, of Highland park; Alfred Sheen, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Magill; Mr. and Mrs. John W. Magill, of Glendale; Alfred Sheen, Sr., of Patterson, New Jersey; Mr. and Mrs. William West, Helen and Junior West, Mrs. Grace Timmons, Henry G. Spalding, W. J. Fleener, of Glendale. With the exception of Mr. Fleener all the guests and the hosts were former residents of Patterson, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Quigley are to make their future home in Glendale.

Halloween Dance

Everything is in readiness for the Halloween costume dance to be given tonight under the auspices of the Community Service organization, at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse.

Mrs. J. R. Case, Jr., chairman of the affair and the members of various committees have worked out some interesting plans for the affair tonight. The hall has been artistically decorated for the occasion with cunning silhouttes of black cats, jack-o-lanterns and other clever decorations suggestive of the Halloween season.

Music for the dancing will be furnished by the popular California Oriole orchestra.

All members and their guests are urged to bring with them their membership and guest cards to avoid confusion in securing admittance.

Juvenile Club

The opening meeting of the Juvenile auxiliary of the Glendale Music club of which Susie Smith is president, will be held Saturday afternoon, October 27, at 2 o'clock, in the Chamber of Commerce hall.

An unusually interesting program will be presented by the members which will be followed by a Halloween party. A cordial invitation is extended to all children under 14 years of age to join this club and participate in the many good things which are being planned for the coming year. Mrs. Grace Jackson is the chairman.

Guests at Bridge

Mrs. Eugene Gilliland of 415 East Stocker street was hostess yesterday at a bridge luncheon. She entertained eight guests at an artistic Halloween luncheon and the afternoon was devoted to bridge games.

Those invited for the affair were Mesdames W. L. Andrews, Charles T. Jones, A. H. Lapham, W. H. Boothby, Mabel Rudy, Fred Abbey and Homer Lockwood.

Discuss Music

Discussion of mutual interests, methods and problems occupied the after luncheon hour of the teachers' roundtable of the Glendale Music club meeting yesterday at the Egyptian village.

Mrs. Eva Cunningham, curator, directed the discussion and one of the most interested participants was Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, club president.

The informal program was opened by Mrs. L. N. Hagood, who presented the subject, "Sight-reading and Its Importance in the Training of Children." Miss Zulu Ziegler also took part in the discussion of this subject. Both spoke particularly of sight-reading in piano work.

Mrs. Calvin Whiting spoke on "Sight-reading for Vocalists." Mrs. Lillian Smits gave a brief talk on "Memorizing" and others speaking on the same subject were Mrs. Eva Cunningham and Miss Campbell.

Mrs. Russell introduced a discussion of the subject of "Ear Training."

The secretary, Mrs. Grace Jackson, announces that Mrs. Nathan Rigdon, chairman of the junior auxiliary of the club, asks all teachers to send her the names of all pupils over fifteen years of age.

Luncheon Today

Mrs. Carl B. Nissen of 518 Palm Drive is entertaining today with a beautifully appointed luncheon and afternoon of bridge and Mah Jongg, at the Egyptian Village, complimenting Mrs. Frank Barham of Los Angeles, a friend of school days. Choice dahlias and chrysanthemums were used in floral decorations.

Cards were placed for Mesdames Guy Barham, Walter Ralphs, Jr., Lester Mershon, Paul Visel, William Glassell, L. V. Shepherd, Edwin Collins, Edward Ballard, Leslie Graham, Ray Brownson, Daphne Ivy and Miss Campbell, all of Los Angeles; Mrs. Andrew Bennison, of Hollywood; Mrs. Charles Irving, of Burbank; Mrs. Charles Lehman and Mrs. Raymond Smith of Fullerton; Mrs. Naylor Rogers, of Glendale; the guest of honor and the hostess.

Bridge Luncheon

Mrs. J. A. Munn of Arden avenue was hostses yesterday to a number of friends when she entertained with a bridge luncheon.

The rooms of the Munn residence were artistically decorated in the fall colors with favors and other appointments in the Halloween design.

At 1 o'clock a five-course luncheon was served which was followed by playing bridge. Mrs. C. Young was awarded first prize. Mrs. H. E. McCartney, second prize, and Mrs. J. A. Munn consolation.

Those present included Mesdames J. A. Endicott, L. C. Wolfe, G. Kimball, C. Young, R. L. Young, T. J. Keleher, G. Windt McClellan, F. Clark, H. E. McCartney, Miss Eva Brehme and the hostess, Mrs. J. A. Munn.

Farewell Party

Mrs. John A. Fisher of 608 West Doran street, and Mrs. Henry W. Sloat of 612 West Doran street, were joint hostesses yesterday afternoon at the home of the former when they entertained informally with a farewell party, complimenting Mrs. Matt C. Hennes of 621 Alexander street.

Those present who enjoyed the affair included Mesdames R. Miller, N. T. Vincent, Paul Lowry, Curtis Sawyer, Earl Russell, M. E. Clark, Joseph V. Griffon, Rebecca Hunter, Blake Morgan, Matt C. Hennes and the hostesses, Mesdames John A. Fisher and Henry W. Sloat.

Give Card Series

A series of card parties are being planned by the Central Avenue Parent-Teacher association as a means of raising money, and the first affair will take place next Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. F. Reichard at the corner of Campbell and Lorraine streets.

Bridge and Five Hundred will be played and the games will start promptly at 2 o'clock. No prizes will be awarded until the final party of the series.

Those wishing to make reservations for the party Monday are to call Mrs. E. R. Ripley at Glendale 242-W.

Luncheon Hostess

Mrs. Herbert Grey of North Isabel street was hostess Wednesday at a prettily appointed luncheon. A yellow color scheme was carried out with choice chrysanthemums in floral decorations and in the dainty appointments of the table. The afternoon was spent with fancy needlework.

Those present were Mesdames, Gus Lavison, Albert Pickles, Raymond Kimbell, W. Ellers, J. E. Foy, Marie Petty, C. E. Snively, Robert McMullin, Seley, and the hostess.

All Day Meeting

The regular all-day meeting of the Nimble Fingers auxiliary to the Daughters of Veterans was Susie Peck, 116 East Cypress street.

A cafeteria dinner was served at noon to the twenty-five members and friends present. During the afternoon two lovely comforts were finished and other work completed for the bazaar to be held on November 27.

The two hand-painted vases were drawn by Mrs. Dorothy Van Wie and Miss Esther Wilson.

Hunting blinds made to resemble thorn-brush thickets are often given a wide berth by animals coming to drink, they fearing lions may be concealed there.

Birthday Surprise

Mrs. Jacob Kull of 625 Palm drive was pleasantly surprised on her birthday yesterday, when members of her bridge club arrived unexpectedly to help her celebrate the occasion.

Halloween favors were used on the luncheon table, with places marked for Mesdames L. Weber, A. Greensides, Joe Whitney, George Dewey, J. Kull, Frank Rhode, F. Hibbens and Earl Hutchinson.

P.-T. A. Lunch

Teachers and pupils of the Pacific avenue school have received the announcement that the Parent-Teachers' association is to serve lunch at the school at 12 o'clock tomorrow. Mrs. W. G. Lauderdale, ways and means chairman, is in charge of the luncheon, and is to serve lunches Monday, Wednesday and Friday of next week.

Hear Mr. Denman

So interested were Tuesday Afternoon club women of the Travel Section in the talk on "Honduras," given yesterday by Mark A. Denman, that they have asked him to continue the subject at the next meeting.

Mr. Denman lived for years in Honduras and made a thorough study of the country and peoples.

U. S. Navy to Replace Lost Jap Equipment

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—As an evidence of the entente cordiale existing between the two governments, the American navy has undertaken to rehabilitate the Japanese navy's hydrographic department with valuable charts, maps and equipments of all sorts.

The Japanese hydrographic department was the most fully equipped on earth and was destroyed by the fire that recently visited Japan.

CARDS PRACTICE FOR U. S. C. GAME

Kerr Sends Athletes Through Secret Training for Trojan Battle

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Oct. 25.—Secret practice will prevail on the Stanford campus all week as Andy Kerr's football eleven prepares to receive Henderson's southern California Trojans at Palo Alto Saturday. The official veil will cover all workouts of the Card varsity until the whistle blows in Stanford stadium announcing the beginning of the first conference game of the season for Kerr's men.

Kerr declined to pick a winner today, but said that he expected "a fast, close game." The margin of victory either way, he said, will probably be very small. "The Stanford team is in fair physical shape and will probably remain so until Saturday, for most of our remaining practice will be dummy scrimmage. Cuddeback and Campbell will practice place kicks all week, for the outcome of the game may possibly depend upon a field goal."

Saturday's contest will early develop into a punting duel between Meyers of Stanford and Dorsey of the Trojan eleven, local critics believe.

Male and female swans are alike in color.

GLENDALIANS GO TO Y. M. C. A. MEET

Program for Leaders Saturday and Sunday at Pacific Palisades

Rex C. Kelley, local Y. M. C. A. executive, and C. W. Ingledue, chairman of the state Y. M. C. A. committee, went to Pomona yesterday to attend a meeting of Y. M. C. A. secretaries and laymen at the Y. M. C. A. building there. Detailed plans were made for the big conference to be held in Pomona the last three days in November.

A large group of Glendale Y. M. C. A. leaders are planning on going to the Pacific Palisades Saturday and Sunday to participate in the big get-together of Y. M. C. A. executives, leaders and their families. The conference will begin at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon and last until Sunday afternoon.

The first event of the beach gathering will be a take-off on the film, "The Covered Wagon." After a spectacular parade there will be a big barbecue.

Glendalians planning on attending are Rex C. Kelley, J. F. Gasser, Lorin Schlotzhauer, F. G. Taylor, Harry Marple, J. M. Center, E. Dietrich, Eugene Wolfe, H. R. Butterfield, Bert Rolfe, H. P. Arnold and C. W. Ingledue. From Burbank there will be E. B. Thomas, Thomas Ehrart and Mr. Root.

'BIG THREE' FACE STIFF CONTESTS

Harvard, Yale and Princeton Week-End Schedule Is Keenly Watched

By DAVIS J. WALSH
For International News Service

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—One of the lurking possibilities of the impending week-end schedule is the defense of Harvard, Yale and Princeton on one and the same afternoon, a record for "big three" football. Possible, but not probable, best describes this premise.

It will give the "big three" no easy moment until the music of the final whistle floats over Saturday's twilight. Harvard is to play Dartmouth, and, according to the wise men of the east, the Green is about due after many years of failure.

Dartmouth is said to have its best team since the war, Harvard its worst. The later has just snapped off a 6-to-6 tie with Middlebury and a 6-to-0 score with Holy Cross. It has a good line and punchless backfield. To win, Dartmouth will have to hurdle the ancient belief, to wit: that Harvard is the hardest team to beat on any Dartmouth schedule.

The Middies appear at this time to form a stronger outfit than Princeton does. As a matter of fact, the teams in the east are a step or two behind the average "big three" just at this time.

Monocles Break Out Like Rash in London

LONDON, Oct. 25.—No longer is the monocle the mark of an English gentleman.

Taxi drivers and artisans have taken to sporting monocles. One explanation that is offered for the popularity of the single eyeglass is that many men whose position in life has been lowered through trade depression and unemployment desire to have an outward symbol of their previous station.

Opticians say that the sale of monocles is six times as great as it was before the war.

English women have also taken to the monocle with a vengeance. Heather Thatcher, an attractive actress, paved the way and now many women, leaders in social and professional life, are affecting the monocle.

Huggins Stands Pat on Yankee Machine

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Beyond an attempt to land another left hand pitcher and an outfielder who bats right handed, Miller Huggins declared that he intended to stand pat on the Yankee lineup for next season, in a statement made public today. He declined to say whether another attempt would be made to obtain Jake May, left hander of the Vernon club of the Pacific Coast league.

It is understood that Huggins is angling for Benny Karr, pitcher and pinch hitter of the Atlanta club. He is also said to be in the market for George Dumont, a pitcher of the same team.

Swiss Make Replica of Niagara Falls

GENEVA, Oct. 25.—A new Niagara Falls is being built in the Alps at an altitude of over 6000 feet, near Martigny, for the purpose of supplying electrical power to the Swiss Federal Railways. The dam will be the same height as that at Niagara and an artificial lake of 40,000,000 cubic yards will be formed. Its total cost will be about $12,000,000.

LA CRESCENTA

VETERAN'S DEATH STIRS SYMPATHY

Beloved Englishman Is Mourned by La Crescenta as Brave Fight Ends

Neighborly kindness was the keynote of the funeral services held at L. G. Scovern company's mortuary this afternoon for a young Englishman who had, with his kindly ways, endeared himself to his neighbors for several blocks around his little home.

Serving as a lieutenant of the British air forces, like many others, the young man became a victim of the great white plague as the result of wounds and exposure suffered during his service.

Coming to this country and to this community four years ago, in the hope of recovering his shattered health, he was soon followed by a plucky little woman who was willing to help him make his fight. Strangers in a strange land, the only familiar thing in the new life was the language.

Baby "Helped Daddy"

His neighbors, with tears streaming down their faces, tell of the ambition of this young husband and father, coming home tired after his day's work with the Glendale city engineering department. He would putter around, putting up shelves here and there, planting and caring for his little garden, the baby trotting happily after him, helping her daddy.

Came a night when he was too tired to finish his work on the little radio he was making for his home, a night when, with a little twisted smile on his face, he lay down and was no more. He died with his boots on. His car, with the city emblem emblazoned on its doors, stood waiting for its driver the next morning. Also, another waited him, and tender hands lifted what was mortal of him for his last ride.

Neighbors Sympathize

And the neighbors? All people buying their little homes on easy payments; working, earnest people and the backbone of America, yet all could spare a dime or more to cover their dead neighbor's bier with flowers.

One little neighbor, none too strong herself, sold her chicken, cheerfully giving up the money so the little widow would at least know what kindly thoughts her neighbors hold for her and hers.

And this young Englishman was Francis Louis Templeman, his last resting place in the country of his adoption in Grand View Memorial park.

Mrs. Viola Carpenter returned home yesterday after a visit spent in San Francisco with relatives.

New drinking fountains are being installed in the Los Angeles Avenue school grounds, being placed on the west end of the grounds back of the new addition just completed.

Miss Marsden left for her home in Minneapolis on Monday. She will visit in Salt Lake, Denver and other points on her way. Miss Marsden, who is a bacteriologist of the city force in Minneapolis, visited her sister, Mrs. C. O. Miller of West Montrose.

Merger Views Vary

Many are the opinions heard on the proposed incorporation of Montrose and La Crescenta.

To quote Charles H. Easton, well-known realtor of this section, "There are many things home owners of this section do not want. Sidewalks, police protection, or restrictions as to those who come here to regain their health." As Mr. Easton says, "The county is doing wonders for us now, so why put stumbling blocks in the way?" Others will be interviewed and their views given in a few days.

Old Man Young, real estate dealer, was hurt this week while helping a workman erect a small tract office at La Crescenta Heights subdivision. While descending from the roof, Mr. Young slipped and fell, sustaining a fracture of two ribs. He has somewhat recovered from the shock, and is back again on the tract.

Schick Refuses to Recognize Near Kin?

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 25.—John W. Schick, wealthy contractor of Birmingham, Ala., who came here in an attempt to ascertain whether the Schick family of Ohio could shed any light on his birth, said at noon today that Martin Schick, brother of the strangely missing George Schick, repulsed him and acted in a peculiar manner when he sought an interview.

John Schick was a foundling child, he says, and ever since his release from an orphanage at Cincinnati thirty-five years ago has sought to trace his parentage. He is retired, and maintains a summer home at 4219 East Fourth street, Long Beach, Cal.

Pastor Will Support Immorality Charges

DES MOINES, Oct. 25.—Rev. N. C. Carpenter, pastor of the Capitol Hill Church of Christ, today declared he would appear before the Polk county grand jury here November 7 to submit proof in support of his charges made in a sermon Sunday that 1200 unmarried couples are living together in Des Moines.

Rev. Carpenter was subpoenaed to appear before the investigating body on November 7.

LOSES APPENDIX

W. W. Hunt, foreman in the Glendale postoffice, was operated upon yesterday at the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital for appendicitis, and is now reported to be progressing satisfactorily.

EAGLE ROCK

CHILDREN'S WEEK EXERCISES CLOSE

Topics of Vital Interest Are Considered at Church Meeting Thursday

Children's Community Week in Eagle Rock reached its height last night with a big mass meeting at the Presbyterian church, largely attended, presided over by Rev. William Middlemass, pastor of the church.

Donnell G. Montgomery, secretary of the local Chamber of Commerce, addressed the gathering on "The Child, a Citizen," pointing out the significance, from the municipal angle, of proper training of children.

The Parent-Teacher association was represented by Mrs. G. E. Arbogast, whose topic, "Parent and Child," went straight to the point from the educational angle, showing that while the school system was doing all it could, it was up to mothers and fathers to do their part, too, in right training of children.

Dr. H. B. Crawford, active in Boy Scout work, spoke on "The Child and the Church," after which Rev. Middlemass conducted an open discussion which proved very stimulating.

Other features included repetition of the Fathers', Mothers' and Children's creeds. Solos and other musical numbers rounded out the program.

Transportation Check

In an effort to better local transportation facilities, three men have been working all week, checking the number of passengers using the Los Angeles Railway company's cars, time schedules, distances between cars, courtesy and other matters, reports Donnell G. Montgomery, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

These men will report at the end of the week to the Affiliated Transportation committee, under whose auspices the research is being conducted. These reports will be made the basis for a further conference with officials of the L. A. R. Y., who claim Eagle Rock is now getting all the transportation facilities its size and location warrant.

Miss Fanny Baily of 149 Grand View avenue, who has been in attendance at the Golden Jubilee of the Order of the Eastern Star, in San Francisco, is motoring back with Mr. and Mrs. Mark T. Lee of 241 Paloma avenue.

D. A. R. to Entertain

The Daughters of the Revolution, San Rafael Hills chapter, plan to entertain the active press women of Eagle Rock on November 10, at the home of Mrs. J. C. Shedd, 203 West Colorado boulevard.

Mrs. Lima Stookey, state regent, will be a guest of honor and will make the address of the day. Mrs. Calvin Whiting will sing a group of songs.

The affair is in commemoration of the third anniversary of the San Rafael chapter.

Movie Stars, Stage Talent Aid Fire Fund

Glendale State bank. The three checks were made payable to Herman Nelson, treasurer of the Chamber of Commerce committee.

A check for $100 was made out by The Glendale Evening News yesterday, from the relief fund being raised through this paper, and delivered to Mrs. F. S. Card, chairman of the local relief committee of the Tuesday Afternoon club, to be presented to Mrs. McGahan for immediate needs.

The total subscription of the Tuesday Afternoon club to the relief fund is $306.33, a check for this amount having been received by The Glendale Evening News.

Glendale women of Chapter L, P. E. O., meeting yesterday with Mrs. Charles Farnham, at 315 North Louise street, voted to share in the relief fund by voting $10 towards the fund. This amount was increased to $16 by private subscriptions.

The Glendale Presbyterian church today turned in the total of $50.31 to the fund being raised through The Glendale Evening News.

The Kiwanis club, whose subscription has already been announced in The Glendale Evening News, today turned in its check for the amount, $25.

Following will be found subscribers to the fund since the list was published yesterday:

Welfare Chest Heads Will Plan for Drive

President W. E. Hewitt of the Glendale Welfare Chest has summoned a meeting of the board of directors and the chairman of the four committees, to be held at the Chamber of Commerce tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Plans will be laid for immediate action with the proposed drive for funds for the various charitable and welfare organizations in Glendale.

HI-Y PROGRAM FOR BANQUETERS

Glendale and Citrus Union High School Football Teams to Be Guests

Glendale's victory or defeat in the football game tomorrow afternoon between Glendale Union High school and Citrus Union High school, isn't going to effect the enthusiasm of the Glendale Hi-Y club members for the big banquet and program they are going to give in the high school cafeteria in honor of the home and visiting teams.

Miss Ellen J. Hanson, head of the domestic science department, is in full charge of the menu, and it is hinted that the good things to eat will be in equal proportion to the immense appetites following the big game. Miss Hanson will be assisted by girls of her classes.

Following the final course Theodore Haig, president of the Glendale Hi-Y club, will assume the duties of toastmaster, introducing as first speaker Roney West, captain of the Glendale football team, who will give a toast, "Shoulder to Shoulder."

Responses will be made by the captain of the Citrus Union team and president of the Citrus Hi-Y club.

The next speaker will be Coach Normal Hayhurst, on the popular subject "Good Sports." Coach Det Sturgess of Citrus will reply with a toast, "Team Work in the School."

Principal George U. Moyse is to be presented and will speak on "Team Work in the Community" and Principal F. S. Hayden of Citrus Union will speak on "Team Work and the Administration."

The interesting subject of "What School Spirit Means" has been assigned to Coach Butterfield.

Completing this program will be music by the Hi-Y orchestra.

FRENCH NOTE IN MUSIC PROGRAM

Work of Gallic Composers to Be Feature of Friday Concert at Club

French musical compositions will predominate tomorrow in the program to be given at the meeting of the Music Section of the Tuesday Afternoon club in the auditorium of the clubhouse.

Under the able direction of Mrs. Roberta T. Young the program has been assembled.

A business meeting will take place at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. Warren Roberts, curator, presiding. Promptly at 3 o'clock the program will begin.

Mrs. Young announces the program as: "Scarf Dance" (Chaminade), danced by Cecilia Mae Fischer, Helen Orr, Leona and Evelyn Hunt, pupils of Pearl Keller.

Vocal solo, "Joan of Arc" by Mildred Dixon Puffer, Jr., dramatic soprano.

Violin solo, "Le Cygne" (Saint Saens) by Mary Ryder.

Vocal number, "Florians Song" (Godard), Gretna Cordary, contralto.

Vocal group, "L 'Heure Exquise", "Si Mes Vers Avient Ves Alies" (Reynaldo Hahn) by George Bingham Cooper.

Piano solo, "Choral" (Cefar Franc), "Le Jeu de l'Eau" (Rebel), by Helene Thompson Morgan.

This program has been secured through the courtesy of Pearl Keller, Virginia Freeman and Hazel Kinkogel.

Mrs. S. B. Morse is to be hostess of the afternoon.

San Francisco Open to Air Attack, Claim

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—Less than half the cost of one super-dreadnaught would make San Francisco impregnable against attack by the navies and air fleets of the world according to Brigadier-General Henry D. Tood, Jr., commandant of the ninth coast artillery district, who in a statement at the Presidio today declared this port was now practically defenseless against an air attack.

While the general character of the coast defenses are excellent, General Tood declared they were designed and armed about twenty years ago and since that time armament has increased greatly in power. He revealed that there are only two guns that can shoot in excess of 18,000 yards, while modern powerful warships are equipped with guns ranging from 30,000 to 44,000 yards.

Mrs. Oesterreich to Be Tried December 5

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 24.—Mrs. Walburga Oesterreich, charged with the murder of her husband, Fred Oesterreich, former Milwaukee clothing manufacturer, will be tried December 5, instead of today, as planned, it was announced yesterday. Osterreich, according to the accused woman's story, was slain on the night of October 22, 1922, by burglars as they entered their home here.

Mrs. Oesterreich is now at liberty on $50,000 bond.

If a giraffe sees a lion first he can out-distance him and if driven to bay matches his hoofs against the teeth and claws of his enemy.

LOUISE DRESSER WINS NEW ALIAS

Film Favorite Summoned at Last Minute to Play Important Roles

Louise Dresser, who plays an important role in "The Fog," now showing at the Glendale Theatre, and who in real life is Mrs. Jack Gardner and lives above the fog, at 1225 Mountain street, Glendale, is (Perhaps this is giving away a secret!) known in the movies as "Last-Minute Louise."

This famous comedienne had the above sobriquet annexed to her wardrobe of aliases some few months ago, on her return to Glendale home from an extended vaudeville tour. She had contemplated a rest but two days later was induced to put her name to a film contract.

Once more she planned a rest but the next day Glendale 2495 tangled with San Mateo, where "The Fog" (the picture for which she has signed the contract) was being shot.

Lots of Clothes

"Miss Dresser, that is to say, Mrs. Gardner, this is Max Graf talking. "We'll have to have you tomorrow. You'll neeed three evening gowns, one opera cloak, one riding habit and four street dresses. Can you make it?"

"Dust out my dressing room!" replied Last-Minute Louise, noting that it was 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

At 9:45 the next morning she was on location.

'Common Scold' May Face Ducking Stool

BELVIDERE, N. J., Oct. 25.—Found guilty of being an "intolerable neighborhood nuisance"—in other words, a "common scold"—Mrs. Liska Szekrow of Phillipsburg yesterday faced the ancient penalty of the town ducking stool.

Mrs. Szekrow was to be sentenced by County Judge Runyon. Since the stool has long passed out and because there has been a water shortage in this vicinity, anyway, it was believed the judge would impose a fine and a judicial reprimand instead.

Town fathers invoked the ancient "common scold" statute to prosecute the woman, alleged to have called her neighbors names and circulated false stories about them.

Deposits $25 After Hitting Street Light

J. H. Sloan, 1285 Raymond avenue, yesterday drove his automobile into a light post at the corner of Wilson and Maryland, breaking the light. He deposited $25 with the police to cover what damages may have resulted.

REGISTRATION OF VOTERS DELAYED

Bond Election Date Must Be Fixed Before Deputies Will Be Appointed

Until the city council passes a resolution of intention to call a sewer bond election, definitely setting the date. County Registrar D. B. Lyons of Los Angeles will decline to appoint deputy registrars in Glendale to register voters. The registrar has advised City Clerk A. J. Van Wie that, in view of the fact that all voters will be compelled to re-register after the first of the new year, he is "opposed to putting the county to the expense of taking registrations until the bond election becomes a certainty."

The contract with Los Angeles provides that the election must be held not later than December 27. A month must elapse after the council calls the election before it can be held. Backing up from the latest possible date, this requires that the election be called not later than November 27. But first the council must pass a resolution of intention to call the election and give two weeks' notice for protests. This consumes the time from November 13 on. The engineering firm employed to make surveys and furnish cost estimates will require at least two weeks before they can give an intelligent estimate of the cost.

Council's Course

Official circles at the city hall are of the opinion that just as soon as the engineering firm gets its work well under way, and can give assurance that the desired information will be forthcoming within a period of two weeks, the council will then pass a resolution of intention without making reference to the cost, this to be included in the final resolution. This action is expected to be taken by the council about the first of November.

Should the council decide upon this procedure two weeks will be provided for registering voters before the closing date, one month before the election. In the meantime, Mr. Van Wie suggests that all who can conveniently do so register at the office of the registrar in the county building, Los Angeles.

Five-Year Term for Bond Counterfeiter

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 25.—A term of five years in the penitentiary was fixed for George V. Halliday, bankrupt broker, by a jury in Circuit Court Judge Falkenheimer's court on a charge of forgery in the third degree in connection with the counterfeiting of $1,500,000 of French government bond interim certificates issued by J. P. Morgan and Company.

Halliday filed an appeal and gave bond of $5000.

FORM NEW LODGE OF MASONS HERE

Glendale No. 544, F. & A. M. Will Meet First Wednesday of East Month

With Grand Master Crites of Bakersfield and his staff of grand officers officiating, Glendale lodge No. 544, F. and A. M., was officially constituted Tuesday night at the Masonic temple. Prominent Masons from all over Southern California were present, the total attendance being 250 or more. A social hour followed the business program, during which refreshments were served.

Stated meetings of lodge No. 544 will be held the first Wednesday of each month.

Officers were installed as follows: John S. Cleeland, master; Charles J. Wolf, senior warden; Wallace I. Hodge, junior warden; George T. Harness, treasurer; Albion B. Woodside, secretary; Alfred R. Ireland, chaplain; Monte C. Brucker; senior deacon; George W. Mishler, junior deacon; Paul E. Maxwell, marshal; R. C. Montanye, senior steward; Henry J. Miller, junior steward; Miley Lyons, tyler.

Predict Big Advance In Property Values

The importance of the paving and electrification of Glendale avenue cannot be stressed enough to prospective purchasers of business property in Glendale, in the opinion of men who are best posted on developments in the eastern part of the city.

With the completion of the improvements now planned it is declared that Glendale avenue will become one of the busy streets of the city. It will open up a direct connection with Los Angeles and with the northeast sections of Glendale and the whole thriving valley north of Glendale.

The wise real estate investor knows that values rise highest along the streets carrying the heavy traffic, it is pointed out, and the Todd Realty Co. specializing in Glendale avenue property, are calling attention to the improvement that has been witnessed there during the past three years.

With the increase in traffic, they declare, in spite of the fact that the pavement is worse than it was three years ago, it is evident that, with a paved boulevard and a car line, traffic and business will increase beyond the hopes of the most optimistic.

FOOL'S CAP PAPER

Fool's cap paper was first named in the time of Charles I, when a sheet having a fool's cap and bells for a watermark was used in place of stationery having the royal arms, in derision of the monarch.

Whiskey Row Is Passing Disintegration of Germany How About $800 a Year? Make Your Circumstances

By Gil A. Cowan

How many readers of The Glendale Evening News recall "Whiskey Row?"

Practically every town, not noted for prohibition, at some time or other, had what was thus termed the heart of the tenderloin.

And it was the writer's fortune to have lived in such cities when they had no use for keys in the saloons. We use the term "fortune" advisably, for it provided us an insight to human nature which would not be easily acquired in Glendale.

Bakersfield was one of those towns where the boys hung to the bar until their feet were mopped from beneath them in the dawn's earliest light. Prescott, Ariz., was another place where a solid block was devoted to dives, with "whiskey row" providing a more or less respectable frontage on the courthouse square.

But times are changing. Prohibition is beginning to make itself felt, even if Governor Pinchot and the Methodist church heads at Washington and a few others desire a little more efficiency. We clip the following account of recent happenings in Prescott as an example of the slow, but sure progress being made in the elimination of old King John of the Barleycorn dynasty:

"Twenty-six Prescott residents, some of them prominent in business and social circles, have been summoned to appear in Phoenix within twenty days and show cause, if any, why buildings owned by them should not be closed, with injunction against the sale of liquor or sale of the premises or fixtures till the suits shall have been settled.

"More than fifty arrests have been made in the last fortnight by federal officers in this vicinity of alleged distillers and bootleggers. On the list are the names of a number of pioneer saloonkeepers of Prescott, as well as of a number of men who have been fined and imprisoned before on conviction under similar charges."

Judge Palmer of the Hollywood Daily Citizen writes some admirable editorials. The following on "The Passing of An Empire" is particularly timely and well worth passing on to you:

"The German Empire of Bismarck is shattered.

"Rhineland declares itself a republic. Bavaria seeks to break off from all ties of Prussian domination. Saxony is uneasy and undoubtedly will follow the lead of the others.

"The once great empire is breaking up into small states and principalities once more—buffer states that cannot harm nor frighten France or Belgium.

"Pan-Germanites and Prussian leaders accuse France of causing this dissolution. They assert the armed rule of Rhineland has paralyzed industry, caused the mark to collapse, with resultant discontent and unrest, intermixed with near-starvation—all resulting in the present political and national crisis.

"Nothing can, at the present moment, prevent the breaking up of the empire. But Europe need not fear that Germany will turn communist. Their leaders are too astute and wise, and the populace has been too long educated and trained to permit that.

"Nevertheless, Germany's dissolution will accomplish one good result.

"It will, for many years, avert the possibility of another war of revenge between the empire and France. It will permit the French to sleep peacefully, without having the fear of waking in the morning to find the Prussian guards or Uhlans at their doors.

"It has bad effects, however.

"It puts France into competition with England for the domination of Europe.

"It muddles the reparations question—for, while France could have collected much indemnity from the German Empire, she will have difficulty in gathering in golden marks from a dozen petty states.

"And it means for these petty states a great step backward.

"Germany's richest land, and some of her wealthiest cities, are included in what may be the Rhineland Republic — Coblenz, Cologne, Mayence and Worms. Much of her mineral wealth and her manufacturing centers are located there.

"Bavaria has great timber lands, as has Saxony.

"Endless confusion will result from inter-taxation and regulation between these states, and during the turmoil, deposed kings, princes and potentates may slip back into their thrones again.

"In fact, it is significant that Crown Prince Rupprecht is hovering in the offing, ready to step into the Bavarian kingdom.

"Meanwhile, the mark collapses again, 50,000,000,000 to the dollar, far below the lowest quotations of the Russian ruble, despite the revolutions and communist rule there.

"The German Empire is gone, and the menace of war goes with it."

Now for a few breaths from the northern part of the state—pithy paragraphs from editorial pens where they have no real estate building to boost in particular and they have time to think of clever things:

Something tells us that that man Mussolini will be over here before long on a speech-making tour.—Chico Record.

Draws Maximum Fine for Reckless Driving

The maximum fine for reckless driving, $250, was imposed upon John D. Eccleston of La Crescenta in police court Wednesday afternoon, before Judge Harry W. Chase, who is sitting for Judge F. H. Lowe.

Eccleston was first charged with driving while in a drunken condition, but in the interest of economy the district attorney agreed to substitute the less serious charge on condition a plea of guilty would be entered.

Trial of Glen Dougherty of Los Angeles, charged with reckless driving, before a jury, started at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and continued until 5 o'clock, when the case was postponed to October 30 at 1 o'clock p. m. On August 27 Dougherty's car collided with a machine driven by Mrs. Harry Collingham of Glendale, on the San Fernando road.

A bit of evidence introduced in the case is a written promise, signed by Doughterty, that he would have Mrs. Collingham's car repaired. This promise, she claims, he has failed to fulfill.

FOR ELECTRIC SERVICE

The government has established a credit of a maximum of 600,000,000 francs for the extension of electric service in rural districts of France.

Judge Reeve to Speak on 'Fathers' Night'

Judge Sidney N. Reeve, superior court judge of Los Angeles, is coming to Glendale Friday night to be honored guest at the "Fathers' Night" held at the Broadway school under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher association. He will speak on "Responsibilities of Fathers."

Mrs. Mary Reese, president of the association, announces that the affair is to be an informal, jolly Halloween party, and urges all patrons of the school to attend.

Following Judge Reeve's talk there will be a social hour with the serving of Halloween refreshments, cider, doughnuts and pumpkin pie.

Broadway M. E. Church Commended by Bishop

Members and friends of the Broadway Methodist church will be interested to know that in his address before the Pacific conference now in session in Los Angeles, Bishop Du Boso praised the work that this church has accomplished since its organization less than a year ago, and predicted that in the very near future Glendale would have a church that the conference would be proud of.

He spoke most encouragingly of the work, zeal and loyalty of this young congregation, and requested the conference to come in a body and see for themselves the bright prospects. It has been arranged for the entire conference to come to Glendale and inspect the church property at 4:45 Saturday afternoon.

Orators in Training for Annual Contest

The annual southern California extemporaneous oratorical contest will be staged on November 22, at the University of Southern California auditorium. With the date but one month away, the various colleges are already preparing for elimination contests. Each of the seven colleges in the south will have one representative and, judging by past accomplishments, Occidental stands a splendid chance. Occidental, Pomona, Calteck, Whittier, Redlands, Southern branch University of California, and University of Southern California are the colleges in the Southern California League of Public Speaking, and it is under this organization that the contest is to be held.

Edward Jones, recently elected debating manager at Oxy, announces that tryouts will be held next week. Jones looks forward to a wonderful debating season, and also a victorious one.

Chinese Bandits Sack Town, Fire on Train

SHANGHAI, Oct. 25.—Five hundred Chinese bandits sacked the town of Kuanting, according to reports received here.

The Peking-Hankow express arrived during the raid but the trainmen, realizing the situation, reversed their engines and retreated under the fire of the bandits who were unable to pursue the train.

Grand Jury in Probe of Lindsey's Charges

Judge Ben Lindsey appeared before the Denver county grand jury in response to a summons following his declaration that illegal operations by Denver doctors had cut the city's birth rate in two during the past year.

Judge Lindsey remained behind locked doors with the jurors for more than an hour. It was reported on reliable authority that he refused to give the jury names of high school girls who had confided in him relative to alleged illegal operations. Judge Lindsey carried into the jury room an armful of instruments said to have been used in illegal operations. It was said the jurors took copious notes on the judge's refusal to answer questions. Whether an order will be asked of the district court compelling him to answer the questions could not be learned.

Erring Hubby Shoots Wife, Police Declare

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—Police sought Eugene Garres who, they claim, shot his wife through the head after she had surprised him and another woman at Salada beach. According to the police, Mrs. Garres, suspicious of her husband's attention to another woman, secured a taxicab and, after trailing her husband's car all day found him at Salada beach last night with a companion. According to the story she told police, her husband shot her when she climbed on the running board of his car to remonstrate with him.

Punch to Jaw Proves Holdup Is Genuine

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—An investigation was under way by police here in the circumstances surrounding the robbery of Leonard Brill, Milwaukee broker, and his woman companion at a hotel here by a masked bandit.

Brill and Miss Corinne O'Rear were visiting with Miss Bessy Bird, a friend of Miss O'Rear's, last night when the bandit forced his way into Miss Bird's room. He seized Brill's diamond ring, valued at more than $2000 and $47 in cash and fled.

Miss O'Rear, in a statement to authorities, said she first thought the holdup was a joke perpetrated by a friend who lives at the hotel, but that her opinion changed when the robber felled her with his fist.

State School Chief Loses Budget Fight

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—State Superintendent of Schools Will C. Wood today had lost his fight to force retention in the state budget of the item providing that 1 per cent of the appropriation for teachers' colleges and special schools be used for administrative expenses, which was vetoed by Governor Richardson. The state supreme court in a decision on file today denied a writ of mandate directing State Controller Ray L. Riley to transfer $21,977 involved in the controversy.

The capitol officially was the "Congress House" in its early years.

NEW CHAPTER OF O. E. S. PLANNED

California Grand Officers Authorize Organization Of Lodge Here

Further details concerning the institution of a new Eastern Star chapter in Glendale have been made known by B. F. Bourne, who has been authorized by Guy W. Brundage, grand patron of California, to begin formalities leading to the organization of the new chapter, to be known as Verdugo chapter.

According to Mr. Bourne there are fifty charter members available for the new organization. Added to this fifty, who come as demits from chapters outside of California, are forty-five applicants for initiation, and numerous other Glendale Eastern Star members.

Official Sanction

Mr. Brundage has a wide friendship in Glendale and it is reported that he will make a special trip south to formally institute Verdugo chapter.

Maude Bigelow Sibley, grand matron of California, has also sanctioned the new chapter for Glendale, and Russell La Fontaine of Los Angeles, associate grand patron, will assist with the organization.

Mr. Bourne states that headquarters of the new chapter will be located some place near the Masonic temple.

Boy Gives Santa Ana Police False Address

The Santa Ana police department Wednesday night notified the local police that a 14-year-old boy giving his name as Richard Buck and his address 810 East Maple street, is in custody there at the detention home.

Officers were sent to the address given but no one there had ever heard of the name before. The police are of the opinion that the youth has been telling the Santa Ana authorities some falsehoods.

Adventist Clergymen Home From Milwaukee Meeting Of Denominational Leaders

By W. L. BURGAN
Written for The Evening News

The delegation of clergymen of the Pacific Union Conference of Seventh-day Adventists which has its headquarters in Glendale, who attended the fall convention of world leaders of the denomination in Milwaukee, Wis., have returned home. President J. L. McElhany, who was the leader of the delegation, says the most progressive plans ever made for the advancement of the denomination were adopted at this meeting.

Appropriations amounting to $2,661,207.06 were made for carrying forward missionary operations abroad during the coming year.

Missions Keep Funds

Extra funds equal to 35 per cent of this amount will be added through the operation of what is known as the Harvest Ingathering campaign, which is an annual affair throughout the ranks of the denomination. The mission stations will be allowed to retain their funds secured through this campaign for local operation rather than turn it back to the foreign mission treasury, as was the policy in the past.

To Africa was appropriated $140,659.62; to Asia nearly $600,000; to Europe a quarter of a million plus a portion of their tithe, and all their mission offerings; to Hawaii nearly $25,000; to Mexico, Central America and the West Indies nearly $150,000; to the negro department nearly $75,000; to the union conferences of the United States nearly $70,000; to the bureau of home missions for work among the foreign-speaking peoples of this country $90,000, and for administrative purposes in the general conference $1,144,000.

Outline of Work

President Spicer reminded the delegates that when appropriations were made last year there was a shortage of 28½ per cent, and within two months this shortage was made up and an additional 10 per cent added to the mission offerings. He said that he felt confident that the delegates would enter into a similar plan just as enthusiastically this year, and do their part toward making the coming year the most successful in the history of the denomination from a financial standpoint.

The money appropriated to Europe, which for many years was on a self-supporting basis, will be used to assist in the purchase of school buildings in that country, the enlargement of schools now in operation, the purchase of buildings for mission headquarters and for advancement of the church along evangelistic lines. Buildings in Europe are selling for a mere trifle, the delegates from there declared, and the denomination will take advantage of the opportunity to enlarge the scope of their endeavors.

To Hold Conventions

Arrangements were made to hold twelve union conference conventions in North America during

Fireworks to Make Lots of Noise At Kiwanians' Party

The Kiwanis club committee that is working on the plans for the big Hallowe'en party for all the kids in Glendale is going to put the party through with a bang.

"Bang" is right, according to Ray L. Galvin, a member of the committee. "We have just ordered $150 worth of fireworks, and if they don't make enough noise we will throw in some other specialties that will make the welkin ring."

William A. Bode, chairman of the committee, is saving all the old piano boxes and phonograph cases that he can lay his hands on and is keeping them for the big bonfire that will throw a lot of light over the Glendale Union High school grounds on the night of October 31.

A. L. Baird, the third member, is working out a general invitation to every kid in town, and it won't be the least bit formal, either.

PLAN CHANGE IN ELECTION DATE

Glendale Realty Board to Take Up Amendments at Next Regular Meet

Consideration of plans for changing the date of the annual election of the Glendale Realty board from November 3 as at present, to the first regular meeting day in November, and also for the addition of more vice-presidents to the organization, instead of one, as is now the case, occupied the attention of the members at their weekly luncheon in Jensen's Egyptian Village yesterday afternoon.

Amendments to the by-laws covering the points under consideration will be presented at the October 31 meeting, which has been set aside as a meeting that will specially devote its attention to these matters.

President C. D. Thom stated that the bonds of the realtors must be taken out before January 1, 1924, and that they must be handled by the members individually, instead of through some central office, as had been originally planned.

James W. Pearson, who has been appointed to investigate the matter, stated that the state association would not take care of the bonding of its members. Applications for brokers' licenses must be sent in early in December, he stated, and the bonds should accompany the applications.

Tells of Music Club

Mrs. Mattison B. Jones appeared before the board and asked for the support of the organization for the work of the Glendale Music club. Mrs. Jones outlined the plans of the club for the coming winter, emphasizing the oratorio, "Elijah," which is to be given during the present season.

Several phases of the recent real estate convention at Sacramento were discussed, and Peter Hanson was warmly praised again for the effort he made to bring the Home Town contest cup to Glendale. Mr. Hanson in reply declared that the way the Glendale board stuck to him, even when he lost, was one of the finest demonstrations of loyalty he had ever witnessed.

Fire Victim Benefit

W. L. Twining, of the fire fund benefit ticket committee, urged the members of the Glendale Realty Board to support to the limit of their ability the sale of tickets for the performance that is to be given November 6, to raise money for the dependants of J. W. McGahan and Clarence Edwards, who lost their lives in the Verdugo Woodlands fire.

Thirteen and Jackson Keep Good Company

D. Ripley Jackson's No. 13 nemesis did not desert him on his recent trip with W. C. Waring to Springfield, Mass., where they were delegates of the local Exchange club to the national convention of that body held there September 12 to 26.

"My ticket from New York to Washington was No. 13," he told the members at their weekly luncheon in Jensen's Egyptian Village yesterday noon, "I wanted room No. 4 and they gave me No. 9, making a total of the fateful number; my Pullman chair from Washington to Philadelphia was No. 13, the charge was $1.13; I sailed from New York on October 13, we had 13,000 gallons of fuel to make the trip, the propeller turned over 13 times a minute slower than it should have, and—"

But at this point postmaster Jackson's audience became incredulous. Believing he was good at figures, the club voted to put him on the ballot as a candidate from their organization for a director of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce.

Red Cross Garments to Clothe Japanese

Glendale is going to share in making Japanese children comfortable this winter by contributing fifty warm kimonos to the big consignment of garments to be sent to the orient by the Pacific division of the Red Cross.

A group of Glendale women met yesterday at the home of Mrs. John Robert White at 347 North Orange street to sew on the garments. The work was directed by Mrs. H. E. Bartlett and Mrs. White, chairman and secretary of the Glendale Red Cross chapter.

"There is quite an art to making these kimonos," says Mrs. White, "but when once one has learned it the work is very easy. They are badly needed by the Japanese in the stricken districts of Tokio and Yokohama. Approval of our work was voiced by my Japanese gardener, for when I showed him one of the finished kimonos he smiled appreciatively and said 'Very good!'"

VARIED PROGRAM FOR P.-T. A. MEET

Principal Whytock Compares Ancient and Present Day Schools in Address

The October meeting of the Glendale Avenue Parent-Teacher association, held Wednesday afternoon, at the school, was filled with interest for the forty or more mothers present with a varied program by the pupils, an entertaining talk by the principal, and the business meeting, full of details of the activities of the organization.

The president, Mrs. O. A. Spradling, was in charge, and the program was opened with a salute to the flag, led by Miss Sharpe.

Pupils of B-7-3 class presented an entertaining program, the first numbers being songs, "O, Mighty Land," "River Song" and "Horlaris," by the entire class.

Piano solo in two numbers, (1) "La Serenata," (2) "Sextette" from "Lucia," by Freda Bassoff.

Reading, "The King of the Cats," by Ethel West.

Duet, "Smiling Through," by Dorothy Leash and Miriam Wallace.

Schools of Early Days

"Schools of Early Days and Now" was the subject chosen by the speaker of the afternoon, Principal Norman Whytock, for a most interesting talk. He compared the educational facilities of the early centuries with the advantages of the modern schools that are enjoyed by the children of today, using many striking illustrations.

At the business meeting, preceding the program, the chairman of the membership committee reported that splendid progress had been made in the recent drive, and it would be extended one more week. At its close the pupils of the room showing the highest percentage of paid-up memberships will be given a treat.

The president requested that the members would take as active part as was possible in the observance of Education Weed, that begins November 19, and also urged the members to attend the meeting of the Mutual Reading Circle at the library next Wednesday as representatives of the Parent-Teacher association of Glendale Avenue.

Plan Sandwich Sale

A sandwich sale will be held at the school during the lunch hour Friday, November 2, which will be in charge of Mrs. L. McAllister, Mrs. E. E. Hurlburt, Mrs. H. O. Lindurm and Mrs. Bruner, who are room mothers of the classes, B-7-3 and B-8-1, of which Miss Natalie Mackay and J. F. McMaster are teachers.

Chairmen of standing committees appointed for the year are: Mrs. S. L. Martinez, finance; Mrs. Don S. Erskine publicity; Mrs. A. H. Lord, philanthropy; Mrs. LeRoy Bosserman, juvenile court; Mrs. G. H. Moore, program; Mrs. H. V. Ellis, membership; Mrs. R. G. Boyles, parliamentary; Miss Lulu Wooldridge, thrift; M. F. McMaster, playground; Miss Gladys Sharpe, patriotic; Mrs. Mae Rosenberg, education; Mrs. T. J. Priaulx, visiting; Mrs. James, courtesy; Mrs. M. A. Heasley, scholarship; Mrs. G. W. Whitney, child hygiene; Mrs. H. O. Lindrum, legislation; Mrs. Tuttle, magazine and emblems. Appointments of room mothers and assistants have all been made.

Class B-7-1, of which Miss Ruth Williams is teacher, had the highest percentage of mothers present at yesterday's meeting.

Refreshments of tea and wafers were served. The next meeting will be the last Thursday in November.

MEASURES DEPTH

Depth of water in rivers and harbors is measured at any instant by a vessel's navigator with an English invention that projects a ray of light to the bottom and picks up its reflection.

Hoodoo Delaying Conover Family On Trip South

Last summer, when Mrs. Conover was maturing plans to come to Glendale, one of her boys, Darwin, fell off the grandstand in the ball park at Everett, Wash., broke several ribs, hurt his leg, and had to go into hospital.

As soon as he was discharged from hospital and was able to hobble around on crutches Mrs. Conover began to plan again for the trip to Glendale.

Everything looked bright until a few days ago, when the little daughter, Doris, fell off the couch in the living room and broke her right arm at the wrist, postponing the journey south for at least two weeks.

But they are still hoping that they will be able to get away from Everett before long in such shape that Mr. Conover will recognize them when they get here.

Injuries to Police Hamper Traffic Men

Today is a great day for speeders.

With two motor officers off duty on account of injuries and another enjoying his customary weekly day off, Glendale is without the service of a motor "cop"

However, M. G. Collins, who deals with hasty drivers at night, goes on duty at 3 o'clock this afternoon, when traffic will again have to slow down to normal.

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters, M.D.

Author of "Diet and Health, with Key to the Calories"

SPIRITUALITY VS MATERIALITY

DIET FOR CHILDREN AND ADULTS, Continued

Foods the Child Can and Cannot Have

NOTE—We began this series Monday. So far we have considered Breads, Fats, Condiments, Eggs, Meats, Fish, Nuts, Cheese and Vegetables. Will you get the back newspapers if you missed them?—L. H. P.

Fruits

The same general directions we have given about vegetables apply to fruits. It is better to remove the seeds and skin of fruits for all children, especially the younger ones. Special attention must be paid to see that the fruit is thoroughly sound—that is, not under-ripe nor over-ripe.

Yes, we can have bananas, if they are thoroughly ripened and well masticated. For the younger children they had best be mashed and beaten. Baked bananas are very easily digested. There are three reasons that bananas are in bad repute. They have been given to children before the fruit was thoroughly ripened, in the stage when the starch has not been converted to the fruit sugar which is more easily digested; they have been swallowed in chunks, and they have been eaten in too large amounts. Observing the precautions I have given you, you can include bananas in the children's diet at any age after fruits are permissible.

It is usually considered best to give stewed fruits for the evening meal.

Soups

Thin soups made of vegetables and meat are good for the mineral salts but they have very little nourishment. They are good occasionally to make the children eat more bread, if that is necessary, and sometimes they stimulate the appetite.

Beef essence and beef juices have more nourishment and more of the mineral elements, and also act as a stimulant.

Thick cream soups made with a foundation of milk are very nourishing and wholesome and can be given often.

Desserts

had best be kept out of sight until the proper amount of growth foods are eaten. No sweets between meals.

Fresh fruit is one of the best of desserts. Stewed fruit, canned or dried, if fresh fruits cannot be obtained, are also good. Dates, figs and raisins, if thoroughly masticated, are good desserts on account of their energy value and iron.

Cornstarch, gelatin, blanc mange; tapioca, rice and other cereal puddings; custards, junket; simple cookies or cakes; whole wheat bread and jelly sandwiches; pure ice cream and water ices in small amounts, occasionally.

If candy is given, dessert time is the time for it.

Best omit pies and pastries made of lard and white flour; although if the proper proportion of growth and repair foods are taken, an occasional piece of good pie won't kill one.

No matter what the dessert, it is a good plan to have a piece of fresh fruit at the end of the meal. It acts as a toothbrush and mouth cleanser.

Next week we will take up menu planning.

THE LURE OF PLAITS

One simply adds style when an apron is attached to the front of a frock of plaited flat crepe, yet the addition is so typical of the latest Paris idea that it is worth while. This dress may also be worn without the apron. The round neck is finished with a bias band, and the sleeves are plaited and finished at the lower edges with picoting. Medium size requires 7¾ yards 36-inch material.

Pictorial Review Dress No. 1864. Sizes, 34 to 48 inches bust. Price, 45 cents. Embroidery No. 11506. Transfer, blue or yellow, 25 cents.

FOR THE BUSINESS GIRL

Here is a frock that is trim and stylish for the business or college girl. It may be developed in rep or wool crepe. The gathered skirt is attached to a long-waisted side-closing blouse with round neck. Turn-back cuffs finish the short sleeves, and encircling the waist is a string-tie of self-material. Medium size requires 2¼ yards 54-inch material.

Pictorial Review Dress No. 1612. Sizes, 34 to 42 inches bust, and 16 to 20 years. Price, 35 cents.

CARE OF THE FEET

Very few women know how to take care of their feet properly. I think I'm safe when I say that the average woman considers that if the toe nails are cut now and then when they seem to need it, and the feet given a good scrubbing during the bath, they've had all the attention they require. Corns, of course, are a problem which will either be taken to a chiropodist or handled according to some friend's formula.

Now the feet really need a great deal of attention to be healthy. First of all, the toe nails should be cut off straight across once or twice a week and each big toe should have a small V cut out of it pointing up the toe. This prevents, and sometimes cures, ingrowing nails. Then the toe nails should be carefully cleaned underneath just as the finger nails are. Callous spots on or under the feet should be rubbed down with a bit of emery paper, then rubbed well with oil. If trouble persists in coming in one place it probably means that the shape of the shoe is wrong and another style should be chosen.

Corns are more complicated. Personally, I am afraid of caustic corn removers and would never dare try one. I have seen excellent results from the following simple treatments: Soak a piece of bread in hot vinegar, squeeze out slightly and bind over the corn, covering it with oiled silk or enough cotton to keep the moisture from spreading. Oiled silk is best as it keeps the poultice wet. If this stays on all night it is quite likely that in the morning all or most of the corn can be lifted out. Binding a slice of lemon over the corn will have the same effect. If you have a steady hand shave the corn down, first soaking the feet in hot water for half an hour. Rub the spot with oil for several days afterward.

Louise N.: You cannot remove sunburn from the hair, but it will not take long for the natural color to return after you have stopped exposing it to strong sunshine. If your hair is too dry your scalp is in need of attention; massage it every day to improve the circulation. Apply a suitable hair tonic several times each week. For hair as dry as yours do not use heated curlers.

For the coarse pores try witch hazel or a few drops of benzoin in a half pint of water. In either case cleanse the skin first.

G. G. G.: Combs intended for waving the hair are usually found at the notion counters of all large department stores.

Disgusted: For a girl of 19 who is more than forty pounds overweight, it would take much more space than I can consume here to cover all the needed information about reducing. The best way to reduce is through the diet, as you have already suggested; so, if you will send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope, repeating your request, I will mail you the necessary information.

I went to see a Bride Friend the other day. She had been keeping house only a few months.

"I've come," I said, "to get your opinion of housekeeping. I want to know which tasks you find the hardest, and whether you like this job better than your old office position? In fact, I want to know just what you think of the daily life of a home woman, now that you are of that classification."

She laughed. Then a serious look came into her eyes. "Shall I be honest?" she said. "Well, then—I think it's hard! Not the housework, you understand; but the housekeeper's everlasting duty of keeping cheerful. For keeping cheerful is a part of the housekeeper's job, isn't it?"

"The bigger part," I agreed. "It hasn't taken you long to find it out. Some women never find it out—but they are not the really Good Housekeepers."

She rose from her chair and came to sit beside me on the davenport. "Look here!" she exclaimed almost impatiently. "Why isn't this truth more widely known? Why isn't a young housekeeper told about it before she enters her new home? My mother didn't say anything about it; the domestic science school where I learned to cook, failed to mention it. But cheerfulness is just as much a housekeeping duty, as cooking and cleaning. It isn't fair that the young housekeeper has to find this out all by herself!"

I agreed with her heartily. I had long felt that housekeeper beginners should be taught to put on a smile with their aprons.

"How did you first discover this truth?" I inquired.

She laughed merrily. "Oh, it was one morning when I had a headache. I made the mistake of pouring the coffee without a smile! I later discovered that that had started the entire day wrong for my husband. One's family wants cheer at the breakfast table. If the housekeeper isn't cheerful, it makes everybody blue.

"And I've thought out why, too," she went on. "It's this: the housekeeper has to work pretty hard; and if she doesn't smile, her family thinks she is sorry for herself. They don't realize that she loves her work, even if she doesn't keep on looking like a Cheshire Cat—that all her tasks are dear to her because she is serving them. So, you see, it's really the housekeeper's duty to smile, no matter what happens. She is the foreman of the home, and it is in her power to make that home a place of cheer or a place of gloom."

And I went home thinking what a wise, normal little housekeeper she was!

Heart and Home Problems

By MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl in my teens. Recently I met a boy a few years my senior. Don't form the wrong impression of me right away, for I am not in love. I merely like this boy and enjoy his company very much. I do not keep steady company with him as he lives in another city, but we correspond. He is nice, mannerly and well-behaved. He would like to come to see me often. How often should I permit him to come? He is the only one I think anything of at all and my parents approve of him.

Please give me a remedy for oily hair. My hair is bobbed and I shampoo it once a week, but in three or four days the oil comes back.

THAT RED-HEADED GIRL.

Once or twice a week would not be too often to let the boy call to see you. He may not find it possible to see you so often, however, since he lives in another city.

The trouble with your hair is the fact that you wash it so often. The oil glands have become weakened. I think you will find that if you let your hair go three weeks without washing, the glands will improve and it will become less and less necessary for you to wash your hair often to remove the oil. There is a trying period when the hair is left three or four weeks without washing, but it only lasts three or four days and then the hair seems less only. Do not brush or comb your hair when it is drying, because that increases the oil.

* * *

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a woman 35 years old, but not too old to ask for an opinion. I have three girls whose ages are 15, 11 and 9 years. What would be proper underwear for them to take to a boarding school in Southern Florida? My youngest daughter is large for her age. When bloomers are worn, should drawers be worn under them? Should I buy bloomers or drawers for them to take? Do girls in boarding school wear bloomers or drawers? BROWN EYES.

Supply each daughter with underwear which will be easily laundered. I would recommend a white wash fabric which would stand boiling, such as nainsook. It is impossible for me to determine the quantity because I do not know the conditions of the school or the facilities for having the laundry work done. If you are in doubt about the quantity to provide, write to the school and inquire.

When bloomers are used drawers are very rarely worn. Personally I prefer a light colored bloomer so that there is no temptation to wear the garment after it is soiled. Some girls prefer drawers and some prefer bloomers. Either would be all right and therefore I would advise you to gratify the preference of each daughter. Both are worn at boarding schools.

* * *

Dear Mrs. Thompson: My girl friend who was rather bashful when around boys never recognized a certain boy with whom she went to school. Now she is older and quite over her bashfulness and she would like to recognize him as a friend. What can she do to gain his friendship? It was only through her bashfulness that she never recognized him. She wonders if it is too late to do differently now. Please give some advice about the matter. THANKS.

Many girls feel self-conscious about boys and ignore friendships for that reason. Since your friend has sufficiently recovered from that stage of her girlhood, I would advise her to speak to the boy the next time she sees him. I presume he will show recognition as soon as she speaks to him.

Don't, I pray you,
Unless you must,
Sweep the carpet
And breathe the dust.

Sleep outdoors
With no intention
Of taking cold—
That's prevention.

Marching with American Legion

"The court will always take judicial notice of one's service to his country."—This was the declaration of Judge L. B. Day of Douglas county, Nebraska, on granting citizenship to two world war veterans, whose cases were sponsored by the American Legion.

Much importance has been attached to Judge Day's order, as it is believed that it will be of aid in solving many questions for naturalization, such as faced these two men in question.

In one case, that of Vaclav Trunecek, the judge ruled that a man's naturalization should not be blocked because, though living in the United States, he had enlisted in an army of Czecho-Slovakia, one of the country's allies which fought side by side with America's men for the same principles. The court ruled that even though Trunecek was with the armed forces of another nation, he had never changed his place of residence from that established in Omaha. He had been previously refused admittance to the United States army for reason of physical disqualifications.

In the case of Hatze Diamantis, a native of Greece, citizenship was about to be refused the man because his two children were in a foreign country, though he had fought in the United States army. Diamantis had applied five times for citizenship papers, and had been held up for various reasons. The attention of Secretary Hughes was called to this case. Judge Day ruled that Diamantis has answered the call of his chosen country, and that this country owed him the rights of citizenship.

Both cases were handled by department officials of the American Legion in Nebraska. Diamantis is a member of the Douglas county post of the legion, in Omaha, which lays claim to the greatest membership of any unit of the organization. The outcome of the two cases and the attitude of Judge Day was extremely gratifying to the legion men.

Members of the American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary are considering the erection of a legion building at the Hennepin county, Minnesota, fair grounds near Minneapolis. At the last fair held late this fall many veterans and women workers of the latter organization present were at loss for some place to gather. An offer has been made by a group of Minneapolis firemen, all former service men, to do the greater portion of the construction during the hours when they are off duty.

A city planning scheme, in Schenectady, N. Y., which has so far eventuated that a planning commission has been appointed to discuss feasibility, had its inception among members of Schenectady post of the American Legion, two years ago.

The legion stands committed to completion of the project which was outlined to the post months ago, as a part of the program for service to the community in which the organization is founded.

Judge L. B. Day

The plans outline a civic center, broadened streets, rebuilt sewage system, parks, and measures which look to solution of traffic congestion and difficulties of automobile parking.

The commission has already been appointed by the mayor, acting on the suggestion of the legion, and members of that organization have been included on the board.

There is a department in Hell marked "Dispensary," where former promoters of consumption "cures" are made to swallow their own worthless dope throughout eternity.

You can count on your fingers the remedies that have stood the test of a hundred years. It takes an adding machine to count the number that have been extolled as "sure cures" during that period.

A "cold in the head" is a rare affair, when the school is conducted in the open air.

BIG LEAGUERS ON GLENDALE TEAM

Game Sunday With Pasadena Brings Out Stars of Baseball World

As a prelude to the opening of Glendale's season in the southern California winter league, this city will contact the Pasadena Merchants Sunday afternoon, October 28, at their Tournament park, with a nine that is probably the highest-powered baseball machine ever turned loose in the west.

The game was previously announced to be played at Washington park, Los Angeles, with a somewhat different line-up, but Frank A. Kerwin, president of the Glendale league team, who has had arrangements in charge, feels that in effecting this change he has accomplished more than ever a decided coup for this city.

The team that will represent Glendale is truly might, and the advertising result will be large, feel Mayor Spencer Robinson, City Manager William H. Reeves, Jesse E. Smith, Mike Donlin, and the many other active baseball fans who are behind the movement.

Look at the Line-Up

The Glendale nine that will cross bats with the Pasadena Merchants Sunday stacks up like this: The Meusel boys, Bob and "Irish," heroes of the recent world's series games between the Yanks and Giants; Mike Donlin, manager of the Glendale winter league team a former Giant; Arnold Stapz, Chicago Cubs; Heinie Sands and Mickie O'Brien of the Philadelphia club; Hollis Thurston, Chicago White Sox; Babe Herman, Boston Red Sox; Carl Sawyer, baseball comedian of the Vernon club, and Leftie Thomas, Los Angeles club.

Fully 10,000 fans are expected to turn out for this game, Glendale to be represented by Mayor Robinson, City Manager Reeves, the City Council, representatives of the American Legion and other local officials and residents.

Working On Ball Park

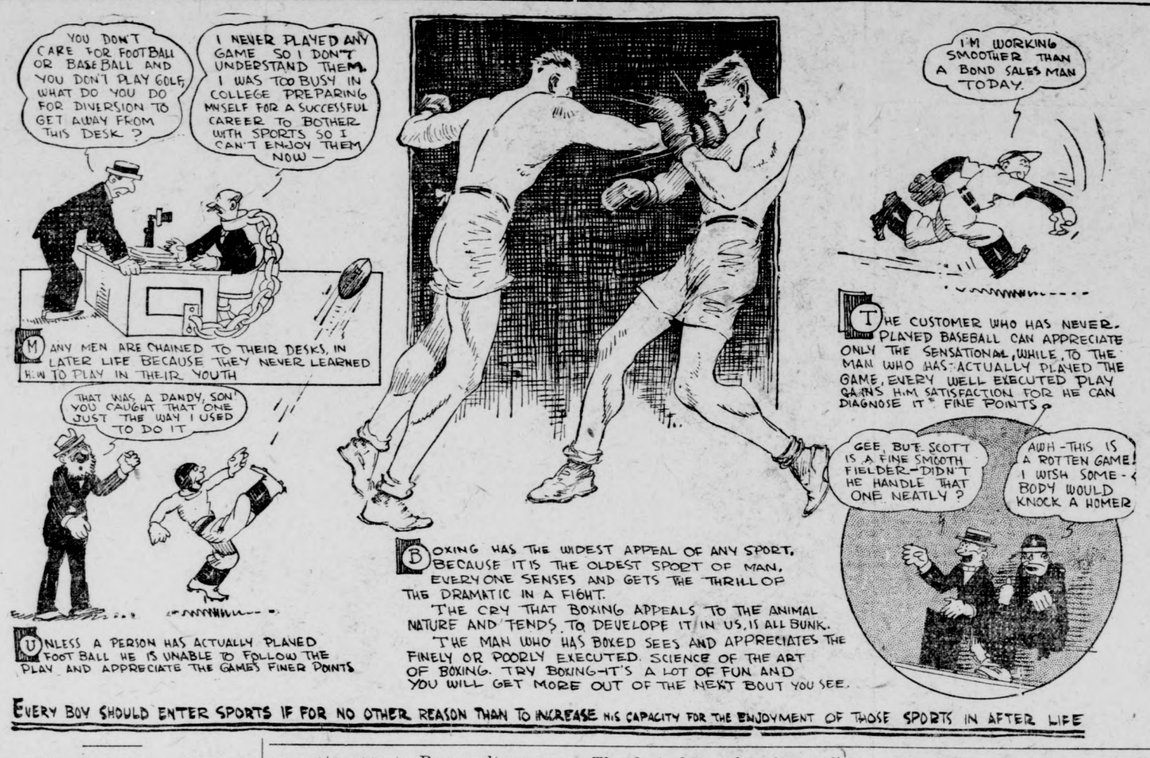
Glendale's official ball park at San Fernando road and Palmer avenue is now under way, and will be ready in time for the third game of the season, to be played there November 17, reports Frank A. Kerwin. Work on the grandstand will start tomorrow.

Glendale's season in the league opens a week from Sunday, November 4, he states, though the schedule is not yet in shape definitely to announce the game.

During the winter tourist season in Cuba a six-team baseball league in the western part plays a regular schedule.

SPORT AND THE JOY OF LIVING — By Wood Cowan



YOU DON'T CARE FOR FOOTBALL OR BASEBALL AND YOU DON'T PLAY GOLF, WHAT DO YOU DO FOR DIVERSION TO GET AWAY FROM THIS DESK ?
I NEVER PLAYED ANY GAME SO I DON'T UNDERSTAND THEM. I WAS TOO BUSY IN COLLEGE PREPARING MYSELF FOR A SUCCESSFUL CAREER TO BOTHER WITH SPORTS SO I CAN'T ENJOY THEM NOW —
MANY MEN ARE CHAINED TO THEIR DESKS, IN LATER LIFE BECAUSE THEY NEVER LEARNED HOW TO PLAY IN THEIR YOUTH
THAT WAS A DANDY, SON! YOU CAUGHT THAT ONE JUST THE WAY I USED TO DO IT
UNLESS A PERSON HAS ACTUALLY PLAYED FOOT BALL HE IS UNABLE TO FOLLOW THE PLAY AND APPRECIATE THE GAME'S FINER POINTS
BOXING HAS THE WIDEST APPEAL OF ANY SPORT, BECAUSE IT IS THE OLDEST SPORT OF MAN, EVERY ONE SENSES AND GETS THE THRILL OF THE DRAMATIC IN A FIGHT.
THE CRY THAT BOXING APPEALS TO THE ANIMAL NATURE AND TENDS TO DEVELOPE IT IN US, IS ALL BUNK.
THE MAN WHO HAS BOXED SEES AND APPRECIATES THE FINELY OR POORLY EXECUTED SCIENCE OF THE ART OF BOXING. TRY BOXING—IT'S A LOT OF FUN AND YOU WILL GET MORE OUT OF THE NEXT BOUT YOU SEE.
I'M WORKING SMOOTHER THAN A BOND SALES MAN TODAY.
THE CUSTOMER WHO HAS NEVER PLAYED BASEBALL CAN APPRECIATE ONLY THE SENSATIONAL, WHILE, TO THE MAN WHO HAS ACTUALLY PLAYED THE GAME, EVERY WELL EXECUTED PLAY GAINS HIM SATISFACTION FOR HE CAN DIAGNOSE IT FINE POINTS
GEE, BUT SCOTT IS A FINE SMOOTH FIELDER—DIDN'T HE HANDLE THAT ONE NEATLY ?
AWH—THIS IS A ROTTEN GAME! I WISH SOMEBODY WOULD KNOCK A HOMER

EVERY BOY SHOULD ENTER SPORTS IF FOR NO OTHER REASON THAN TO INCREASE HIS CAPACITY FOR THE ENJOYMENT OF THOSE SPORTS IN AFTER LIFE

President Roosevelt, who was one of sport's greatest boosters, once gave advice to a schoolboy that ran something like this:

"Study hard and get good marks, but don't neglect the development of your body. Better to have a poor deportment card than poor health."

And now, according to news dispatches, President Coolidge gives the youth of our land an 1896 angle on the value of sports in a 1923 age.

Old time, hard digging is the best training and exercise for the average boy, according to the president. To drive home his argument he tells us of a boy who walked sixty miles, carrying his trunk on his back, to start a college education. That young fellow, he points out, would not need a course in football to get him in shape for books.

Maybe not, but what a halfback he would have made!

Well, as long as we've got our hammer out, let it be known that our vote goes to Roosevelt as regards views on the valuation of sports in a boy's life.

A healthy body never handicapped a brain, but on the contrary, many a brain has been woefully handicapped by an unhealthy body.

Then there is the matter of getting the most enjoyment out of life. Too much stress is laid these days on making a financial success in life, and not enough time given to teaching boys how to enjoy life on the way.

The boy who carried his trunk on his back sixty miles to college may have made a great business success, but he never knew the thrill that comes to a winning athlete. He probably enjoys good health for he must have had a great, fine constitution to begin with to carry a trunk sixty miles. That trunk carrier, if he owns the mint, wouldn't give a pewter dime to see the army and navy football game because he wouldn't understand a play.

The fact that a boy has a fine and healthy constitution is no excuse for him to neglect athletics, to our way of thinking.

EVERY BOY SHOULD ENTER SPORTS IF FOR NO OTHER REASON THAN TO INCREASE HIS CAPACITY FOR THE ENJOYMENT OF THOSE SPORTS IN AFTER LIFE.

Too many men are chained to their desks through life because they never learned how to play in their youth. For, unless a person has actually played football, baseball, tennis or most any other sport, he is unable to fully enjoy the play and appreciate the finer points. The only thing he can get out of sport competition is the sensational; while to the man who has participated and has an intimate knowledge of a game, every well executed play in football or baseball, every difficult shot in tennis or golf, even the ordinary plays, afford him pleasure and satisfaction for he can appreciate and diagnose the finesse with which they are executed.

The fight fan who cries the loudest for a knockout is the bug who never had a glove on in his life. The fellow who has boxed is so busy watching the skill with which each contestant thrusts and parries a blow or the display of footwork that he care little whether there is a knock-out or not.

The cry that boxing appeals to the animal and tends to develop it in us, is all bunk. Probably the man who carried the trunk on his back for sixty miles thinks so because he never boxed, perhaps. He howls for the K. O.

We see one to three bouts a week and have boxed quite a little, but we haven't had a fight in ten years.

So we say, boys, get out and carry a football or even a bat, swing a tennis racket, try the pole vault, sprint the hundred and slam the golf ball, even if you had to carry your trunk to college. Them days is gone forever, anyway.

Do all these just to get more out of the joy of living later on.

CLEAR SITE FOR BASEBALL PARK

Work on Stand and Fence to Start Today; Lumber Shipments Here

A crew of a half dozen men started work Tuesday on the Glendale baseball park on San Fernando road between Park and Palmer streets, with Mickey O'Brien, catcher for the Philadelphia Nationals, in charge of the workmen.

Harry White's Cletrac tractor bumped over 135 trees yesterday and is crawling about the place today bowling over everything in sight.

Early this morning a crew of carpenters will start work on the grand stand and fence. Lumber has been ordered and deliveries will start today. The grand stand will seat about 4500 people. The entire seating space will be covered and there will be no bleachers.

Game With Shell Oil

It is planned to have the new park ready for use the third Sunday in November, when the Shell Oil Company team will play Glendale here. Jack Dempsey has consented to pitch the first ball and Mayor Spencer Robinson will be urged to catch it.

The local team will open the season with the Shell Oil mine on their grounds at Long Beach the first Sunday in November.

Glendale's new ball park consists of about four acres of ground. As soon as the trees and brush are removed, the ground will be prepared and grass sown.

Girl Basketeers in Training for Games

The Occidental Girls are preparing for a big season in basketball with a long schedule of contests. The women's gym has been the scene of battle every Monday and Thursday afternoons as the co-eds are in hard training for their first season of regular conference playing. Many of the fair sex are competing for berths on the varsity women's basketball team which will meet the teams from Pomona, and the Southern Branch University of California.

The interclass games will be played off before any intercollegiate competition. Then the winner of Oxy's upper division will meet the upper divisions of Pomona and the Southern Branch of University of California.

OXY ADOPTS NEW CHEERING SYMBOL

Orange and Black Pom-Pons Discarded in Favor of Hawaiian Leis

Occidental College has changed its cheer symbol from the much-cherished orange and black pompon to Hawaiian leis of the same colors. The pompons have become so common among the high schools and colleges that Oxy decided to adopt a new athletic rally emblem.

Mrs. Joseph Pipal christened the first lei and placed it over the large bronze Tiger's head in chapel the other day at one of the regular student rallies.

Away back in 1912 Mrs. Pipal and Coach "Timberwolf" Pipal were spending the summer in Florida and happened to notice a crude form of pompon being used for street celebrations during the festivals. They thought that such an array of paper colors flying in the air in the Oxy bleachers would aid in cheering the team on to victory so they brought one back to Los Angeles and duplicated the article of orange and black colors.

Led to Victory

That year the Oxy pompon waved and cheered the Tigers to victory and has been sacred ever since. Ever since 1912 the pompon has carried Occidental to victory over the other colleges in some sport. In that first year of using pompons Oxy defeated Pomona 53 to 13 in a wild football game and the Eagle Rock students believe that a duplicate of that feat will take place now that the leis will be used.

Occidental was the first institution in the west to use pompons and since they brought them in nearly every high school and college on the coast has adopted them.

Inter-School Soccer Game Ends in Tie

The fourth game of the inter-school soccer schedule was played Tuesday afternoon at Glendale avenue by the midget teams representing Wilson and Glendale avenue schools, and ended with a tie score of 1 to 1. Wendell Sherman and Waldo Forrester are stars on the Wilson team and Curtis Doll is doing splendid work for Glendale avenue.

Of the four games, three have ended in a tie score, and the schools appear to have an even chance at the championship.

Dempsey and Kearns in Hotel Business

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 25.—With the purchase of a $650,000 hotel apartment house in West Sixth street, Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, and his manager, Jack Kearns, have entered the hotel owners' field. The new acquisition brings the champion's real estate holdings in Los Angeles to considerably over a million dollars, it was learned. It was also understood from an authoritative source that Dempsey is considering the purchase of another hotel.

Dempsey recently announced that his palatial Western avenue home here was for sale at $400,000, which is said to be a bargain price.

Neither Kearns nor Dempsey are thinking of a fight for the champion at present, they both declaring that the next best battle in sight is one with Firpo in New York next July 4.

Orioles-K. C. Tied In Little World Series

BALTIMORE, Oct. 25.—The "little world's series" between Baltimore, winners of the International league pennant, and Kansas City, American association champions, became deadlocked yesterday when Baltimore beat the Blues 9 to 5 in the eighth game of the series. This gave each team four victories. The Orioles hit three Kansas City pitchers hard, lacing out twelve hits.

CHANCE OFFERED GLEASON'S POST?

Once Peerless Leader May Go Back to Windy City as White Sox Boss

By DAVIS J. WALSH
For International News Service

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Frank Chance, in other, and perhaps better, days the biggest man in the playing end of baseball, has been quoted from Los Angeles as declaring that he is in receipt of offers to manage two big league clubs next season. There are just two clubs in the majors in the market for a manager, namely, the Washington Senators and the Chicago White Sox. It is our information that the Sox will get Chance.

Before leaving the east at the close of the series, he confided to friends that he would like nothing better than to return to the town where he knew his greatest success as a manager of the old Cubs. At the time this statement is said to have been made, Chance had been released by the Red Sox for no particular reason except that Bobby Quinn fancied Lee Fohl as a manager. It is also generally known that Kid Gleason was about to declare himself out as manager of the White Sox.

The inference is that while White Sox officials, aware of Gleason's intentions, had already approached Chance with a tentative offer.

The once peerless leader would prefer Chicago over Washington for his 1924 activities, in spite of the fact that the Senators finished fourth and the Sox seventh this season. He, however, valued his reputation as manager above all else and it is pretty generally acknowledged that the White Sox are a superior bet over the Senators, particularly for a new manager to take over. Just how far Comiskey might go with Chance is a matter for speculation. When Gleason resigned, it was rumored that Eddie Collins would fall heir to his job. It was reported also that Collins had received an offer and that Comiskey is playing both men against the position with the idea of doing business with the least expensive. In that case he will find Collins no economical investment.

Glendale Eleven Goes to Azusa for Game

Glendale Union High school's middleweight football team sweeps into action again this afternoon, when the midgets invade the town of Azusa and engage the Citrus Union eleven in a desperate conflict. The struggle will be the second one in the Central league schedule and the locals hope to again carry the bacon off the field, whether it squeals its protests or not.

The Red and Black started things right when they won their first league tilt last Thursday with South Pasadena. The 130's showed up well at that time, and if they fight as hard and play as well today, they will no doubt easily subdue the refractory Lemons.

So far the locals are tied with Covina and Alhambra for the league supremacy. All three have strong teams and will do their best to capture the pennant. And the Glendale middleweights are working hard to squelch the others, and expect to do it when the time comes.

THEATRES

THE GLENDALE

"The Fog," now showing at the Glendale Theatre, proves to be a most absorbing photoplay. It was enthusiastically received yesterday and will continue today and tomorrow.

The story is of a sensitive boy (Cullen Landis) who finally triumphs over the meanness and tyranny of his environment, through love for a sweet and beautiful girl (Mildred Harris). Others in the capable cast are Louise Dresser, Marjorie Prevost, Ralph Lewis, David Butler and Louise Fazande.

The story of "The Fog" is by William Dudley Pelley. The photoplay was adapted by H. H. Van Loan and produced for Metro under personal supervision of Max Graf, Paul Powell directing. It is a picture that revives one's faith in humanity.

THE GATEWAY

The great Pola Negri is to be seen at the Gateway theatre today and tomorrow in "The Cheat," her new Paramount picture that has been conceded everywhere to be a big winner. Dashing Jack Holt supports the star. It is a George FitzMaurice production.

The story, written by Hector Turnbull, is developed with a wealth of color and shows Pola in the delightful role of Carmelita de Cordoba, a Latin-American beauty, who elopes with an American, as a result of which she is disinherited by her father and forced to live in the modest quarter her none-too-rich husband is able to provide.

There then enters a crook, in the guise of a rich art connoisseur, who provides funds for Carmelita to gamble heavily. When first she, and then her husband, realize she is in this man's debt, a tremendous climax develops.

Daily News Letter

General News and Gossip from Staff Writers at Home and Abroad.

TODAY—The Brookhart-McNider Row.

By ROBERT S. THORNBURGH
For International News Service

DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 25.—Senator Smith W. Brookhart, so-called Western Progressive enemy of trusts, big business and the Esch-Cummins law, and ex-Commander Charles Hanford McNider, of the American Legion, are having a merry battle these days out here in the "corn belt," warming up evidently for the national political world's series of 1924.

Brookhart has said a great many hard things about McNider, while friends of the latter have not been overly modest in charging the senator with radicalism and trying to establish an American Soviet a la Russ.

Brookhart is out for re-election. McNider and his associates are very much out to eliminate him from the United States senate.

McNider has been mentioned for everything from ambassador to Italy to the senatorship. So far he hasn't issued a statement, excepting to say that the ambassadorship was "news to me"; but his friends are sawing a lot of wood and husking some political corn. The prospects are most promising for one of the bitterest and most dramatic political fights of the campaign when Brookhart and the McNider clique go to the paddock next year.

"Charles H. McNider, the cement trust magnate, who is dictating the campaign against me and promoting the fake Russian issue, sat in a secret meeting in Chicago in May, 1920," Brookhart declared recently in a public address.

"This meeting decided that the farmers should be deflated by contracting their credit and forcing them to dump their products on the market; that the railroads should be inflated by sending a committee to the Interstate Commerce Commission to ask for an increase of railroad rates; that farm prices must go down and railroad rates must go up, the resultant depression to destroy the labor unions."

Brookhart insists that the result was "the greatest panic in farm prices in the history of agriculture." He declared that was the reason the "McNair outfit wants to talk about Russia.

The senator says that the so-called Wall street plot "to speculate on the bear side of the market for farm products, to beat down the price of Liberty bonds and buy them in cheaply, to destroy the labor unions and to 'get' Henry Ford" taught Ford a lesson which should be profitable to the farmers.

According to the senator, Ford, as a result of the lesson learned by the depression, decided to and did accumulate sufficient working capital in cash to conduct his business.

"Ford has learned his lesson," Brookhart continued. "His statements now show cash on hand to run his business.

"I ask the farmers and laborers to learn the same lesson. Demand a co-operative banking law, put the McNiders off the Federal Reserve boards, and put a majority of farmers and laborers on."

Brookhart said the Federal Reserve bank is the greatest economic power in the world, by its control of credit, fixing prices, promoting prosperity or ordering bankruptcy.

"It is Wall street controlled," he added. "There is but one farmer and no laboring people on its board, and the farmer went on but recently."

Senator Brookhart is making the most of his time before going to Washington for the opening of the Sixty-eighth Congress, touring Iowa and putting the "burning issues," as he sees them, up to the voters.

That he is strongly entrenched in the state nobody denies. Likewise, none denies that he will face the bitterest battle of his political career in 1924.

From Brookhart's talks it is evident that among the important moves he makes in the senate this winter will be a move toward re-opening the railroad fight.

A bill he introduced to repeal all vital sections of the railroad bill in the last Congress and to amend the old law to "pump the water out of the valuation, stop the capitalization of unearned increment and reduce the return to the interest rate on the bonded portion of the capital," as he explained it, got the well-known committee anaesthetic.

"Six members of that committee were defeated in the last election, and I hope the committee will be reorganized so my bill can come out for consideration," he declared.

IS ENVOY'S MIND ON CROQUET?

Harvey Resigns Post After Hays' Visit

Will Hays, left, and Ambassador Harvey croqueting on lawns of Warwick Castle

The announcement of the U. S. state department that Ambassador George Harvey will resign his post in London, January 1, coming on top of the extended visit of Will Hays to the ambassador's home, strengthens the rumor that Harvey will Manage Coolidge's presidential campaign next year. Hays managed Harding's presidential campaign and was postmaster general for a time. Hays and Harvey are shown playing croquet while being guests of H. W. Marsh, an American millionaire, at Warwick castle.

On the Spur of the Moment

ADAM

Old Adam was a lucky guy, although he didn't think it;
Whatever stuff he had on hand, he was allowed to drink it,
And Mother Eve could never say:
"Well, s'pose you saw that blonde today!"

He didn't have to hear discourses on the radio,
Or folks who read the titles in the motion picture show.
Yeah, Adam was a lucky cuss
Compared with the poor likes of us.

He didn't stay out late so didn't need dope an' excuse;
There wasn't any place to go, so what would be the use?
Those days you didn't have to strain
Yourself to think how to explain.

The income tax meant nothing in the lives of him and Eve,
And when the landlord came around he'd just laugh up his sleeve.
He fixed his furnace, waxed his floors,
So had no rows with janitors.

If he and Eve should quarrel in a slight domestic scrap
He easily could heave the kitchen tinwear at her map,
Because she never could withdraw
By saying: "I'll go back to Maw."

He never fought a street car crowd or had a copper curse him,
He never had a tradesman ask when he would reimburse him.
Life sure was soft in ages dim;
By gosh, I wish that I'd been him!

One of the chief mysteries of modern civilization is where a head waiter thinks he's going when he escorts you all the way around a deserted hotel dining room and finally lands you at a table at the furthest end.

We are a trusting sort of cuss in human nature, but somehow we are always suspicious of the bird who wants to match for the luncheon check and then borrows from us the coin to match with.

"British Cabinet at Sea," proclaims a headline.
Seems as if we had enough trouble on our hands without joining their rum fleet too.

Who's Who in the Day's News

"REJECT TURKISH TREATY," GERARD URGES U. S. SENATORS

James W. Gerard, former ambassador to Germany, urges the senate to reject the treaty negotiated with Turkey at Lausanne last August, in a statement made public recently by the American Committee for the independence of Armenia. In summing up his arguments at the end of the statement Mr. Gerard said:

"It is an indefensible treaty — morally. It renders impossible the continuance of American educational and philanthropic enterprises in Turkey, and ignores our solemn pledges to Armenia. The economic concessions which it purports to secure for a few Americans—since transferred to a foreign group—under the formula of the open door and which constituted the consideration for America's time-honored rights in Turkey and for her betrayal of Armenia, are now admitted to be of dubious value. The Turks have already violated their promises of good behavior toward our missionaries and the remnants of the Christians. All the reports which have recently reached the outside world from Turkish and foreign sources show that partisan armed conflicts, widespread banditry and hopeless economic chaos seriously threaten Kemal's regime, and that the task which confronts the government is, according to the admission of its own leaders, superhuman one.

Says America Should Wait

"The conclusions to be drawn from the foregoing facts and arguments are that, by now surrendering our rights to Kemal, we shall find it difficult to reassert them against the regime which may, any day, overthrow and succeed Kemal, and that it would be the part of wisdom to wait and observe the Turks at work for a reasonable time to determine intelligently the course which we should pursue.

"The honor of America, no less than every dictate of reason, demands that the senate reject the Turkish treaty."

Mr. Gerard declared that the United States, in accepting the Turkish treaty, would go back on the declaration of the seven points of the American policy made by the Department of State last October, to the effect that America was interested in the maintenance of capitulations, protection of American philanthropic institutions, indemnity for damages suffered by Americans, freedom of the straits, opportunity for archeological research, the open door and protection of minorities.

Under the Lausanne treaty, Mr. Gerard pointed out, we had given up our seven points. We had abandoned capitulations and had allowed our missionary institutions in Turkey to become subject to Turkish laws, he said. We had failed to settle the question of indemnity for damages suffered by Americans through the burning of Smyrna, confiscation and destruction of missionary property, and denials of justice by the Ottoman government.

Strait Concession "Illusionary"

As to the freedom of the straits, he said, we had secured an "illusory concession of a right which we have always possessed." We had secured the same rights for archeological research as are enjoyed by Turkish archeologists, he went on, but there are no Turkish archeologists, so that our scholars will have to wait indefinitely to make important researches.

Regarding the open door, Mr. Gerard said that the treaty merely gave us "the privilege to trade with and invest in Turkey—as in the past." But he said there were few opportunities in Turkey for American capital. With almost no industry and an archaic agricultural system, he said Turkey wants almost nothing. He charged the American government with showing poor judgment in lending support to the Chester concession, which he termed "a project which was obviously impossible." In granting the concession, he said, the Turks hoped to get an American loan.

Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories

— BY HOWARD R. GARIS —

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE WOODEN DOLL

Jillie Longtail, the mousie girl, went creeping, creeping, creeping over to the hollow stump bungalow of Uncle Wiggily. Jillie Longtail, the little mousie girl, gnawed and gnawed and gnawed on the rabbit gentleman's front door.

"I hope he lets me in," whispered Jillie Longtail, the little mousie girl.

Uncle Wiggily heard the gentle gnawing and listened.

"Who can that be?" asked Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy. "It sounds like Toodle or Noodle Flat Tail, one of the beaver boys."

"They would gnaw harder than that," spoke Uncle Wiggily. "It is such a gentle gnaw that I know it can't be the Fox or Wolf, so I'll go to the door."

And when he went to the door, there stood Jillie Longtail, the mousie girl, who had come creeping, creeping and creeping—gnawing, gnawing and gnawing, and hopping, hopping and hopping to Uncle Wiggily's hollow stump bungalow.

"What is it, Jillie? What do you want?" asked the bunny.

"I want—that is, I hope you will play with me," softly squeaked Jillie. "You played with Baby Bunty, you know. You made her a fireman's hat, a soldier's hat and a paper boat."

"Yes, so I did," answered Uncle Wiggily, twinkling his pink nose. "Do you want me to make you a soldier's hat, Jillie, or a fireman's hat, or a paper boat?"

"Neither one, if you please," squeaked Jillie. "But could you please make me a doll?"

"Me make a doll—an old rheumatic gentleman like me, with a pink, twinkling nose, make a doll?" laughed Uncle Wiggily. "I'm afraid I don't know how, Jillie."

"You can make a doll out of almost anything, you know," said Jillie. "You can make one of rags, out of a corncob or out of wood. You ask Nurse Jane if you can't."

"But Nurse Jane had gone out in the garden to hang out the clothes, and she had on a big sunbonnet so no blackbird could come along and nip off her nose.

"I can't ask Nurse Jane until she comes in the bungalow again," said Uncle Wiggily. "But, Jillie, if you would like me to——" And just then Uncle Wiggily looked down and saw where Nurse Jane had dropped a clothes pin on the floor.

"Did you say, Jillie, that a doll could be made of wood?" asked the bunny gentleman.

"Oh, yes," answered the little mousie girl.

"Well," went on the rabbit gentleman, "a clothes pin is made of wood, and I suppose it could be turned into a doll."

"Of course it could!" laughed Jillie, the little mousie girl. "Please do it, Uncle Wiggily!"

So Uncle Wiggily took the clothes pin and with ink he made a face on the wooden head. He made two eyes, two noses and—oh, just a moment, if you please—he made only one nose and one mouth.

When Uncle Wiggily had the two eyes and the nose and the mouth made on the head of the clothes pin he held it up and Jillie squeaked:

"Oh, it looks just like a real, wooden doll."

"It will look more like one when I have put some clothes on it," said the rabbit gentleman, "though I am not much on dressing dolls."

However, he found some pieces of red, blue, green and yellow silk in Nurse Jane's rag bag, and these he tied around the clothes pin.

"Oh, she's a lovely wooden doll, and I'm going to name her Sallie Ann Monday Tuesday," said Jillie, "'cause you generally wash on Monday or Tuesday and she's made from a clothes pin."

And just as Jillie was loving her wooden doll the door burst open and in popped the Skillery Scallery Alligator with his long, double-jointed tail.

"I'm going to see what Uncle Wiggily's ears are made of!" bellowed the 'Gator. "And to find out I'm going to nibble them!"

So the Alligator started to nibble Uncle Wiggily's ears, but before he could nibble a single nibble, Jillie took her wooden clothes pin doll and, pulling off the red, blue, green and yellow silk and satin rag dress, the little mousie girl put the pinching end of the clothes pin on the Alligator's tail. Oh, how it pinched—real hard!

"Oh, she's a lovely doll!"

Oh, wowzie, zowie, zow!" howled the 'Gator, and out of the bungalow he ran, not stopping to nibble Uncle Wiggily's ears or find out what they were made of.

"Jillie, you're a brave little mousie girl," said Uncle Wiggily. Then he dressed the wooden clothes pin doll again and Jillie took it home with her and was very happy.

And if the golf ball doesn't go bouncing along all by itself and bump the milk pitcher on the nose, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily's nut hat.

POEMS That LIVE

NYDIA'S SONG

The Wind and the Beam loved the Rose
And the Rose loved one:
For who recks the Wind where it blows?
Or loves not the Sun?

None knew whence the humble Wind stole,
Poor sport of the skies;
None dreamt that the Wind had a soul
In its mournful sighs.

O happy Beam, how can'st thou prove
That bright love of thine?
In thy light is the proof of thy love,
Thou hast but to shine.

How its love can the Wind reveal?
Unwelcome its sigh;
Mute, mute to the Rose let it steal—
Its proof is—to die!
—Lord Lytton.

DRUGS EXCITE THE KIDNEYS, DRINK WATER

Take Salts at First Sign of Bladder Irritation or Backache

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble because we often eat too much rich food. Our blood is filled with acids which the kidneys strive to filter out; they weaken from overwork, become sluggish, the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night, if you suffer with sick headache, or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or if you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, begin drinking lots of good soft water and get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine.

This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer are a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.—Advertisement.

SIMPLE WAY TO TAKE OFF FAT

There can be nothing simpler than taking a convenient little tablet four times each day until your weight is reduced to normal. That's all—just purchase a case of Marmola Prescription Tablets from your druggist for one dollar, the same price the world over. Follow directions—no starvation dieting or tiresome exercising. Eat substantial food—be as lazy as you like and keep on getting slimmer. And the best part of Marmola Prescription Tablets is they are harmless. That is your absolute safeguard. Purchase them from your druggist, or send direct to Marmola Co., 4612 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich. —Advertisement.

Weather Changes Cause Sickness

Extreme changes of weather during Fall cause many colds and coughs. For quick relief from throat, chest and bronchial trouble, coughs, colds and croup use Foley's Honey and Tar. Contains no opiates—ingredients printed on the wrapper. Largest selling cough medicine in the world. "Foley's Honey and Tar is the most pleasant and efficient remedy for coughs and colds that I ever saw," writes Wm. Jones, El Dara, Illinois.

Clergyman Home From Meeting at Milwaukee

the coming winter, which will be attended by many of the leaders from Takoma Park, Md. The twelve union conferences will be divided into four groups and the sessions will be ten days each, extending from January 21 to March 20. All the ministers and other gospel workers throughout North America will be called to these conventions to work out plans for evangelistic campaigns in every state in the Union and every province of Canada. A tithe totaling more than $7,000,000 will be used for this purpose during the coming winter.

Several new denominational books will be put in circulation on educational subjects, the life of Christ, healthful living and commentaries on the patriarchs and prophets, and the great controversy between Christ and Satan in the Spanish, French, Portuguese, Scandinavian and different oriental languages.

People Seek Religion

Religious services in Europe are crowded with people who are searching for something that will lead them out of confusion, chaos and perplexity that are plainly written on all their faces, according to Rev. J. S. James of Takoma Park, who has just returned from a tour of the British Isles, Germany, France, Belgium and Scandinavia. "The situation in Europe is worse than it was before the war," he said, "and the people see that their only hope of a satisfactory solution of their difficulties is in the gospel of salvation. God is working a great miracle over there. When the people accept the religion of Jesus Christ as the only solution for their dilemma their faces become as lights in dark places; discouragement is no longer noticeable and their hopes revive. They buckle down to the situation with the result that interest in missionary work is growing. Halls are jammed with eager listeners when the gospel is preached. In our Berlin conference alone I preached to a single audience of between 4,000 and 5,000 persons, all of whom have accepted the Advent faith."

Perplexing Travel Conditions

Mr. James said traveling conditions, especially in Germany, are perplexing. The trains are crowded, and it takes a man physically fit to endure the situation that he must face. "If a man is fit in body and soul and has a passport he can get around. Whenever an officer of the law sees a stranger he demands to see his passport. Suspicion is intense, and the authorities are constantly on the watch."

A ministerial association comprising a membership of 15,000 ordained and licensed ministers, Bible teachers, editors, presidents of colleges and academies and other gospel workers in the denominational ranks throughout the world is to be added to the world-wide work of the Seventh-Day Adventist denomination, according to plans adopted at the convention. This association, with Rev. A. G. Daniells of Washington, D. C., as its secretary, is to assist ministers and other church employes to make their soul-saving endeavors more efficient, and to give assistance to young men about to graduate from denominational colleges in their ambitions to become successful ministers.

Need More in Ministry

Rev. Mr. Daniells declared that something must be done to build up the ministry both among those already in it and among the students. "We find our advance students leaning to medicine, teaching and business, and must make strong, earnest and systematic efforts to turn more of them to the ministry."

The appointment of a committee of nine other leading ministers to give Mr. Daniells assistance was announced. These will be Revs. W. A. Spicer, C. K. Meyers, J. L. Shaw, F. M. Wilcox, O. Montgomery, C. H. Watson, C. B. Haynes, M. N. Campbell and G. B. Thompson.

Plans are to be put into operation to send these men into colleges and academies of the denomination to lecture on the high calling of the ministry, and the needs of the world for men who can lead.

Recruit for Foreign Fields

Rev. Mr. Daniells said the students are to be made acquainted with ministerial problems, church government and other things necessary to a successful ministry.

Foreign missionaries, practically all of whom are well-known in Takoma Park, attended the convention from China, Japan, India, South America and the West Indies, and will take recruits back with them when they return. All branches of the church were considered during the convention, and steps taken to make further advancement both at home and abroad.

BURBANK

BURBANK IN FIELD FOR INDUSTRIES

Reductions in Light and Power Rates to Aid Growth of City

A new effort has been launched to draw industries to Burbank, states C. H. Cline of the Chamber of Commerce industrial committee, who with C. W. Anderson and J. Lake of the GMC Grease Company have been authorized by the chamber to open the industrial door of this city to industries at Vernon and elsewhere.

One institution alone, it is stated, is willing to expend $40,000 immediately upon erection of a plant in Burbank, if the proper location can be obtained.

Being experienced with the location of industries, Mr. Lake is felt to be a valued member of the committee. He has operated in the Vernon section and knows conditions there.

Reduced Power Rates

Burbank consumers of light and power face material reductions. The state railroad commission points out that when the new flat rates go into effect November 1 and meter rates November 15, the city will pay the Southern California Edison Company 7½ per cent less than heretofore.

As Burbank makes the purchase direct from the company and distributes it to the people, this should effect an individual saving on each bill from that date on.

E. L. Dort of the public service department points out that the city is selling light and power to the people of Burbank cheaper than the Edison company is selling it to those who buy direct, while the new rates are decidedly below the rates prevailing during the war period.

All classes of consumers will be benefited by the reduction, he states, as follows: Street lighting, 11 per cent; industrial power, 10 per cent; agricultural rates for Southern California, 10 per cent.

With the rate reduced 7½ per cent, the city will save at the rate of $3,750 annually, according to Mr. Dort, as the sum paid out during the fiscal year, February, 1922, to February, 1923, was $42,850. The amount is now running about $4,000 per month, he states, or $50,000 for the year.

LOWER GAS RATE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—The cities of San Bernardino Redlands and Corona will receive substantial reductions in the rates charged by the Southern Counties Gas company for natural gas service, as the result of a decision announced today by the railroad commission.

scores of ambitious men, women and young people in Glendale and surrounding territory. No such distribution of prizes has ever before been attempted in this section. The plan of the campaign is unique, it is on a high plane of business efficiency and every active club member is guaranteed a square deal with liberal pay for every moment expended in selling subscriptions to The Glendale Evening News.

The sole purpose back of this selling campaign is to make this the greatest and most influential paper in this territory, bar none. It offers residents in Glendale and surrounding territory a wonderful opportunity to profit, and in a big way, by utilizing their spare time. Just think of being able to earn a $2250 building lot or one of the other liberal awards in return for part time effort during the next eight weeks.

Experience Not Necessary

The fact that a person is not an experienced salesman (or woman) need not prevent him or her from entering the campaign and sharing in the valuable awards. When the matter is sifted down every worthwhile individual is a salesman to a greater or less degree. All necessary qualities may be inherent, lacking only the one big opportunity to test your abilities—to win out and make more real money in less time than you ever dreamed possible.

Everyone a Salesman

When a person secures a position he is selling his services to his employer, when a man goes to the bank to borrow money he is offering his security in return for a loan. When we hear a good lecture, read a good book or see a good play we immediately try to create a desire in the minds of our friends and acquaintances for the things we like. This, too, is salesmanship. We are all natural born salesmen and we use that gift to a greater or less degree from the cradle to the grave.

It should be understood at the outset that this is NOT a popularity or beauty contest. It's a pure test of salesmanship ability and well directed energy. There is no catch in this offer. The awards will be made to those who see in this "Salesmanship Club" the opportunity of a life time to earn from $15 to $250 a week—to the ambitious men and women who get busy now and secure the largest number of credits given for subscriptions to The Glendale Evening News. Either old or new subscriptions count, so the field is wide open in every locality.

Two Districts

The territory covered by The Glendale Evening News is divided into two districts—one in the city of Glendale, and the other comprising the towns of Montrose, La Canada, La Crescenta, Tujunga, Burbank, and Eagle Rock. This absolutely equalizes competition between the city of Glendale and surrounding territory, and vice versa. Club members residing in Montrose, La Canada, Tujunga, Burbank and Eagle Rock will be given the same fair, impartial and helpful co-operation as members residing within a stone's throw of The Glendale Evening News office.

Get Subscriptions Anywhere

Club members are not confined to their own districts to secure subscriptions, but may get them anywhere in the territory covered by The Glendale Evening News. The division of districts is made to insure an equitable distribution of awards, but does not limit subscription getting in any sense whatsoever. Club members in Glendale may canvass for subscriptions in the other communities, members residing in the neighbor sections, may canvass for subscriptions in Glendale or elsewhere.

Club members will be given full credit for all subscriptions they secure, no matter where obtained. This throws the entire territory open to every club member, no matter where he or she resides. The prizes will be awarded according to district, which equalizes competition, so that each district is assured of its own set of awards, but subscriptions may be secured anywhere.

Membership Week

An early start is half the battle won. This campaign, while extending over a period of eight weeks will, compared to drives of somewhat similar nature, be short and snappy. It is imperative that those who wish to earn the biggest awards get started right at the inception of the campaign.

Within the next few days there will be a number of club members actively in the race. The very subscriptions that you can have for the asking may be taken by others before you get around to it, unless you start at once. Don't delay a single minute—the campaign is too short—and it will take double the time and effort later on. RIGHT NOW is the opportune time to ACT. Tomorrow may be too late. Remember you can't lose by trying, and every minute is valuable. Time, once lost, can never be regained.

"Membership Week" is the most important period of the entire club. Get in right at the start. Show your initiative and send in the Membership Blank appearing elsewhere in this issue without delay. Let your friends know you are in the campaign and get their subscriptions first. Once started the rest will be easy.

How to Become a Member

Many readers will want to know "what to do" and "how to do it." First, clip the "membership blank" found in another part of this paper, and mail or bring it to the campaign department right away. Or, telephone The Glendale Evening News, Glendale 132, and a complete working outfit will be sent to you at once. Then tell all your friends and acquaintances that you are in the race to win, and ask for their support and assistance.

The filling out of the membership blank does not commit you to the expenditure of a cent. You will not have to spend any more time in this interesting work than you feel you can spare.

For the benefit of interested parties and for the purpose of giving information to those who find it impossible to call personally during the day, the club manager will be pleased to have one of his assistants call upon you and explain the matter in detail.
